“ Like leaves on trees the race of man is found,
Now green in youth, now withering on the ground :
Another race the following Spring supplies;
They rise successive, and successive fall:
So generations in their course decay;
So flourish these when those are passed away.

On April 4, 1721. Samuel Sewall Commissioned by His Excellency Samuel Shute, Esq., Governor of Massachusetts Bay in New England issued letters of administration to Katharine Noyes of Boston upon the Estate of her deceased husband Oliver Noyes, Certified by John Boydell, Regt.

On April 12, 1721. Jonathan Belcher qualified as Guardian of Sarah Noyes a minor aged about 11 yrs, Anna Noyes a minor aged about 12 years, children of Oliver Noyes of Boston, Certificate signed by Samuel Sewall & certified to by John Boydell, Reg'r.

Then follows a Power of Attorney from Katharine Noyes to Col. Edward Moseley dated Jan'y 8, 1727, witnessed by Jona Belcher, & Richard Hubbard, attested by Samuel Tyley Not' Pub', also another Power of Attorney from Jona Belcher to Col. Edward Moseley bearing the same date & witnessed by Katharine Noyes and Rich'd Hubbard, attested by Sam'l Tyley Not' Pub', to take charge of their interest and estate consisting of one moiety or half part of Roanoke Island. (In No. 2 of the Register page 306, will be found other interesting items relating to Roanoke Island, for 1764 in the 2nd item read 1704, the former was a typographical error.)

So much interest centres in Roanoke Island as the first white settlement in America, (antedating that of James Town in Virginia by about twenty years and that at Plymouth, Mass., by about thirty three years) and being the birthplace of Virginia Dare the first white child born on American soil, we have thought any early records referring to the Island would be interesting to our readers. Not only to North Carolinians, but as well to all Americans where soever they may be found. Virginia Dare was the daughter of Ananias Dare and his wife Ellenor daughter of Gov. White, the Executive of the Colony. Roanoke Island is a historic spot, all our history begins there, it is the centre of interest from a historical standpoint.

The above is a copy of a paper found in the records of St. Paul's Parish, Edenton, N. The above account embraces only the items for the years 1736 & 1737, and amounts to about $6,600. There are expenditures for the other 22 years to give the total cost of the Church, these have not yet come to light. It is to be regretted that no name attaches to the paper, to designate the name of the Treasurer, or Commissioners in charge of the building.

THE BONNER FAMILY OF BEAUFORT COUNTY, N. C.

Early in the Eighteenth Century, there came to Beaufort County, N. C., three brothers surnamed Bonner, their Christian names being Thomas, James and William. They came directly from the State of Maryland where they had sojourned possibly some years, having emigrated from England. William settled in some adjoining or not far distant county, not yet definitely ascertained. James settled the Town of Washington in Beaufort Co., N. C., which before its charter was known as Pea Town. He died unmarried and was buried on his premises, the spot being on what is now the south portion of Main Street just East of Bonner Street; when Main Street was extended beyond and just East of Bonner St., his remains were removed to the extreme South west corner of the present Episcopal Church yard and cornered by Main and Bonner Streets. The inscription plate has been displaced from the flat stone over his remains hence we have no accurate date.

Thomas located on what he named Bonner Hill one mile North of the Town his brother settled and the estate composed miles of pasture and timber lands.

His remains lie interred at the old family burying ground, probably selected by himself, it is less than a stone's throw from his dwelling-house and is located on that part of Bonner Hill known as the Sycamore where the Smallwoods now live. We copy the inscription on the stone which marks his resting place:

"Beneath this stone lies the body of Thomas Bonner, Esq., who departed this life 7th of April, 1765, aged 75 yrs."

He was Sheriff of Beaufort Co., in 1759. He married Abigail ———; who bore him the following children:

C. 15 Sept., 1746, and after an illness of seven weeks expired in his perfect senses 6th Dec., 1788. THE EDENTON TEA PARTY.

Was held Oct. 25th, 1774, it was composed of fifty-two of the Ladies of Edenton and vicinity, that such a gathering actually occurred, is clearly proven by the following extract of a letter from Arthur P. Iredell, of London, to his brother James Iredell, of Edenton, N. C. The letter is dated

London, Queen's Square, Jan. 31st, 1775, and says
    "What do you think? Pray are you become patriotic? I see by the newspapers, the Edenton ladies have signalized themselves by their protest against tea-drinking. The name of Johnston I see among others; are any of my Sister's relations patriotic heroines? Is there a female Congress at Edenton too? I hope not for we Englishmen are afraid of the Male Congress, but if the Ladies, who have ever, since the Amazonian era, been esteemed the most formidable enemies, if they, I say, should attack us, the most fatal Consequence is to be dreaded, So dexterous in the handling of a dart, each wound they give is mortal; Whilst we so unhappily formed by nature, the more we strive to conquer them.

the more we are conquered! The Edenton ladies, Conscious, I suppose, of this Superiority on their side, by former experience, are willing, I imagine, to crush us into atoms, by their omnipotency; the only security on our side, to prevent the impending ruin, that I can perceive, is the probability that there are but few places in America which possess so much female Artillery as Edenton. Pray let me know all the particulars when you favor me with a letter." (Life and Correspondence of James Iredell Vol. I pages 230-1.)

This letter is dated just three months and seven days after the meeting. As sail-vessels only existed at that time, from Edenton to London required sometimes two or more months, to compass the journey across the Atlantic. We could not well establish the fact, by better testimony, save a copy of some newspaper published about that date, containing the resolutions and names of the participants.

Again some years afterwards, Lt. W. T. Muse of the U. S. Navy was in the Port of Mahon, Island of Minorca, and discovered in a shop there, a painting on glass, purporting to be a caricature of The "Edenton Tea Party." Some of the faces were so well developed in the picture that they were easily recognized. Lt. Muse purchased the picture, and on his return to Edenton, presented it to the ladies of the town, the writer remembers to have seen it in his youth quite often, in one of the offices of the Court House in Edenton, where it remained for a number of years, by some accident it was broken, but the fragments were preserved, and a few years since our highly esteemed townsman Dr. Richard Dillard, secured them, placed them together, and at his own expense, had the picture reproduced on canvas, by a competent artist, and presented it to the North Carolina State Library where it can be seen.

The meeting was held at the house of Mrs. Elizabeth King, in the town of Edenton, N. C. Mrs. King then lived in a house facing to the East on the "Old Court House Square," the old structure was razed about fifteen years ago, to give place to a more modern building, we regret the town did not purchase it, and retain it as a souvenir of the event. The full text of the resolutions passed at this meeting, seem to have been lost, diligent search has been made, we regret without success, to find them, the only fragment that has been preserved appears in Wheeler's History of North Carolina, Vol. II, page 90, and is as follows:

EDENTON, NORTH CAROLINA,

25th Oct., 1774.

"As we cannot be indifferent on any occasion that appears to affect the peace and happiness of our Country, and as it has been thought necessary for the public good to enter into several particular resolves by a meeting of the members of the deputies from the whole province, it is a duty we owe, not only to our near and dear relations, and connections but to ourselves, who are essentially interested in their welfare, to do everything as far as lies in our power to testify our sincere adherence to the same; we therefore do accordingly subscribe this paper as a witness of our fixed intention and solemn determination."

"Signed by Fifty-six Ladies."

Wheeler says fifty-six ladies but the correct number is fifty-two. Only five of these fifty-two were positively and definitely known until a very short time since, the list had been lost; many days and hours have been spent, in the attempt to rescue it from its grave of oblivion, and all hope of ever finding it, had about vanished, when lo! a message from Durham, N. C., brought the welcome intelligence of its recovery. Capt. J. Beverly Hunter, of the Durham Recorder, whose ancestress—Charlotte Hunter, was one of the number composing the party, is entitled to the credit for having snatched from oblivion the names of these highly patriotic and noble ladies. Their names appear as follows:

Mrs. Penelope Barker, Presd't; Mrs. Elizabeth King, Vice-Presd't, and Mrs. Winnefred Hoskins, Secretary; Miss Isabella Johnston, Mrs. Sarah Valentine, Fanny Morgan, Mrs. Sarah Littlejohn, Ann Blount Little, Margaret Bond, Ann Grandy, Mary Muse, Frances Johnston, Hannah Iredell, Jean Blair, Margaret McKenzie, Sophia Gallop, Maria Louise Skinner, Benedicta Smith, Clara Cotton, Cornelia Manning, Adelaide Knox, Cora Norfleet, Mary Swann, Amelia Coffin, Sallie Hathaway, Edney Roulhac, Amelia Rice, Elizabeth Roberts, Charlotte Hunter, Penelope Hill, Betsey Walton, Jane Hinton, Mariah Beasley, Nellie Blair, Ann Hathaway, Lucy Bonner, Helen Miller, Peggy Cox, Mary Satterfield, Penelope Brownrigg, Eliza Standing, Phyllis White, Caroline Pophelstone, Lydia Willis, Lucy Thompson, Hester Cross, Susan Jones, Chloe Bozman, Delia Pollock, Sarah Benbury, Priscilla Duckenfield, Mary Hooper.

The scroll on the painting clearly indicates by the words inscribed on it, that these ladies passed resolutions discarding the use of tea and other articles, upon which an unjust and oppressive tax had been levied by the British Government.

The event has been so elegantly and gracefully portrayed by the gifted pen of our distinguished and talented friend, Dr. Richard Dillard, A. M., of Edenton, N. C., that we hesitate to let our footsteps fall along the literary path he has so recently trod, his article has become one of the series of "The Booklet" published by the Daughters of the Revolution at Raleigh, N. C., from whom the series can be obtained, and as the object of the publication is to secure the necessary funds to erect a suitable monument in the City of Raleigh, to perpetuate the memory of this event, as well as the memory of the noble women of the "Old North State," whose patriotism placed so bright a page in their country's history, we shall confine ourselves to the task of preparing for our readers, as far as it can be gathered, a short sketch and history of the individuals composing the party, together with their ancestry and descendants.

To do this successfully requires the hearty co-operation of the families interested, we therefore earnestly entreat the descendants of these ladies to prepare and furnish us with as full and complete data as they may or can secure of their families, including the ancestors of the ladies as well as all of their descendants, of whom they have accurate knowledge.

As we have all of the information that can be obtained of Mrs. Sarah Valentine, we commence our task with her name.

SUSAN JONES.

The only record we can find of her, we copy from the stone at the head of her grave in St. Paul's Cemetery, Edenton, N. C. The epitaph reads thus: "In memory of Susan Jones, a native of Philadelphia, who departed this life the 28th Sept., 1817. Aged 72 yrs. 5 mos. & 4 days.

"Here below a stranger sleeps awhile, to rise once more,"

Perhaps some of our readers may be able to give us some record of her. We would be glad to have it.

THE NAME OCRACOCK.

As some discussion has been elicited by a statement made to the effect that Ocracock took its name from an expression "O Crow Cock," made by Teach the pirate during the engagement with Lieut. Maynard, the following paper found in the Court House at Edenton, N. C., settles the fact that the Island bore the name "Ocacock" in 1716 two years before the Capture of the pirate which occurred in 1718, it is published simply to settle the above question, as it is not pleasant to think that any place in North Carolina was named from any expression uttered by any person so desperate and notoriously wicked as Teach. It cannot be stated whether the r in the name was accidentally dropped or substituted afterwards.

Margaret McCulloch was a lineal descendant of Sir Cullo O'Neil first Laird of Myrton, Scotland, and a son of the Clane boys, Ireland. In the early part of the 14th Century, the Irish took up arms to throw off the British Yoke, and called on Robert De Bruce, King of Scotland, to assist. He sent his brother Edward with 6,000 men. Cullo O'Neil was made a Captain of Horse. They drove the English out of Ulster. The English being re-enforced surprised Edward De Bruce near Dundolk, here Edward was slain by Malpers, Capt. Cullo O'Neil slew Malpers and brought off the sword of Edward, and made a successful retreat to King Robert De Bruce's Army. Capt. O'Neil was Knighted by the King, who made him his standard bearer, Sect'y of State and gave him the lands of Myrton—the rendendo being "a rose for the King to smell at when he came to Myrton." Sir Cullo O'Neil died in 1331. Myrton descended to his eldest son Sir Godfrey who assumed the surname McCullo. It was held in this name until 1524, when Sir Alexander McCullo died without male issue, and his son-in-law Henry McCulloch who had married his daughter Margaret, became heir to Myrton. MISS ISABELLA JOHNSTON was the sister of Mrs. Hannah Iredell had the same ancestry, but had no descendants as she never married. At the time of her death she was affianced to Joseph Hewes. She sleeps with her family at Hayes, near Edenton, N. C.; her grave by some means, has never been marked by any stone or monument.

Mr. Hewes to whom she was engaged never recovered from the shock, caused by the death of this excellent lady. He went into a decline and gradually wasted away until death renewed the bonds which had been severed by his stroke.

Joseph Hewes was born in New Jersey about the year 1730; he

*Hon. Wm. M. Shipp was twice married, his 1st. wife was Kate Cameron daughter of Judge Cameron, of Florida; issue (a) Anna Cameron Shipp, (b) William Ewen Shipp, Graduate of West Point and Lieut in the U. S. Army; he fell at the gallant charge made at San Juan City during the Spanish-American War; he married Margaret daughter of Dr. Fabius Busbee, of Raleigh, N. C., and left two sons (a) William Ewen Shipp, (b) Fabius Busbee Shipp, (c) Bartlett Shipp, Attorney-at-Law, (d) Kate Cameron Shipp.

first appears in Edenton in 1755, where he embarked in mercantile life with Charles Worth Blount and George Blair under the firm name of Blount, Hewes & Co., afterwards the firm became Hewes and Smith. He represented the town of Edenton in the Assembly in 1774 and 1775. He was elected a member of the Continental Congress in 1774, and served his adopted State in that position. In April, 1776, he was appointed by the Provincial Congress, at Halifax, N. C., together with William Hooper and John Penn delegates to the Continental Congress, at Philadelphia, and was present at the birth of the Republic, affixing his name to the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. He served until 1777, and was again elected to Congress in 1779-80, and died during his term of office Nov. 10, 1779 and was buried in Philadelphia; his funeral was attended by Congress (who wore the usual badge of mourning for 30 days), officers of the Government, French Minister and Suite together with a large concourse of people. Wheeler in his History of N. C., Vol. II, page 94, says he was buried in Christ's Church, Phila. A statement has been made in some of the papers of North Carolina, that Mr. Hewes was buried with the Johnston family at Hayes, this is an error, which perhaps arose from the fact that another "Signer of the Declaration of Independence, Justice James Wilson, of Pennsylvania, who died while on a visit to his colleague Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, James Iredell, and was interred in the Johnston family burial lot at Hayes, where his remains now rest in an unmarked grave. It would be eminently commendable for the people of North Carolina, to locate if possible the exact spot in Philadelphia where Mr. *Hewes' remains were interred, and place above them a suitable shaft to perpetuate the memory of so distinguished a citizen and statesman. It is true he has written his name, "where time can never efface it," and needs no monument to tell posterity of his glorious deeds, yet we would honor ourselves, and inspire the emulation of his noble example, by those of the present and succeeding generations, by this act of our high regard and remembrance. Who will undertake the work?

WHALE FISHING IN NORTH CAROLINA WATERS.

North Carolina.

To the Honble Christopher Gale, Esq., Chief Justice and the rest of the Assistant Justices of the Gen'l Court to be held at Edenton the last Tuesday in October, 1727.

The information and complaint of William Little, Esq., Att'y Gen'l and Receiver in behalf of his Exc'll'y John Lord Cartèret, Palatine, and the rest of the true & Absolute Lords Proprietors of Carolina, sheweth that,

Whereas his Royall Majesty King Charles the Second of blessed memory heretofore King of England, Scotland, France & Ireland, in the 17th year of his Reign by Royall Charter under the great scale duly ratifyed did give, grant & confirm unto Edward Earle of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earle of Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sr. George Carteret, Sr. John Colleton and Sir Wm. Berkley & assigns a certain Tract of Land Territory or Province within his said Majesty's Dominions extending from Corratuck Inlet or Gulet near Virginia on the North & Southerly unto the latitude of 29 degress of North latitude inclusive near the Gulf or Cape of Florida together with all waters, Harbores, Bays & the fishing for all sorts of Whales, Sturgeon, & all other Royal Fishes in the Sea, Bays, Inletts & Rivers within the premises and the fish therein, taken together with the Royalty of the Sea upon the Coast within the limits aforesaid and also in and by the sayd Charter did incorporate, create and constitute them the sayd Edward Earle of Clarendon, &c., their Heirs and Assigns to be the true and absolute Lords and proprietors of the said province or Territory, and all other the premises (saving always the faith, allegiance and Sovereign Dominion due to his said Royall Majesty, his Heirs and Successor.) All which hath constantly since been held possessed and enjoy'd by the said Lords Proprietors, their Heirs and Assigns, by the name and style of the Palatine and the rest of the true & absolute Lords Proprietors of Carolina. And the sayd Attorney in the behalf as aforesaid. Sheweth that his Excell'y the Palatine and the rest of the true and absolute Lords Proprietors of Carolina for encouraging the whale fishing in their sayd Province have for a long time granted publick leave & lycence to the Inhabitants of other Governments to take, kill & save whales and all other Royall fish in any of the Bays, Seas or Coasts within their sayd Limits and Dominion yielding and paying annually to them the sayd Palatine and the rest of the true and Absolute Lords & Proprietors of Carolina or their Receivers for them one tenth part of the Oyle or Blubber and finn or Whalebone commonly so called by them so taken, killed and saved and the sayd Attorney Gen'l further sheweth that upon the encouragem't & lycence so given as aforesaid, Sundry Inhabitants of New England and elsewhere as well as the Inhabitants of this government for severall years past in divers Crews or Companys in Ships or Sloops have come into Ports and Harbours of this Government, the Masters whereof by proper permits and Lycences have landed their respective Companys or Boats Crews of Men, with their Boats, tackle, stores and utensils to follows the sayd imploy of Whaling and have killed, taken and saved sundry whales on the Coast of the Government and thereof made considerable quantities of Oyle and Bone and have constantly payd the tenth part thereof annually as aforesaid yet nevertheless so it is that in the year of our Lord 1725, on or about the month of December Josiah Doty, Master of a Sloop or Ship with a great Company of men and Severall Boats with Tackle & stores under his care, charge and conduct did enter his sayd Vessell & stores in Port Beaufort within this Government by virtue of the aforesaid Toleration or lycence was permitted to unlode his sayd Company with their Boats, Stores and Utensils to go on the sayd employ of Whaling on the Sea Coasts of this Government for the winter Season of the sayd year who during the sayd season did kill, take and save a great number of Whales in the Bays, Shoar or Sea Coast of this Government and thereof did save and make the quantity of three hundred barrells of Oyle and one thousand weight of whalebone yet nevertheless the said Josiah Doty did not pay and render nor cause to be divided, payd and rendered to the said Palatine and the rest of ye true & absolute Lords Proprietors nor their Receiver the sayd Tenth part of the said Oyle and Bone, but the whole thereof in the said Vessell and other Vessels did carry and Transport out of this Government and doth still deny & refuse the said Tenth part of said Oyle and Bone by them gott as aforesaid to pay and render altho' he hath been often thereto required to the damage of his Excell'y John Lord Carteret Palatine & the rest of the true & absolute Lords Proprietors of Carolina five hundred pounds and thereon the sayd Attorney in their behalf as aforesaid commandeth suit and prays process and judgment thereon for the said damages and costs. Signed."

LETTER FROM EDWARD MOSELEY TO AUGUSTIN
SCARBOROUGH.

CHOWAN, March 12, 1712.

SIR: With this by Wm. Cartwright I send you the list of claims for your Precinct—But the money in Publick Bills of Credit not holding out as was expected—It is concluded by the Comm'ers for Issuing them out but half the Claims now, excepting the So. Carolina List, Maj. Gales' expedition to So. Carolina, for drawing the bills of Credit, & Capt. Hecklefield which are agreed to be paid off entirely—for paym't of Mr. Knight's & Mr. Foster's Claims I have drawn out a distinct parcel of Bills, which I am to give them. I send you 292£ in Bills proportionable for ye four yearly payments sealed up with the same seal as this is.

You are to remember that you pay nobody above half of their claim and that must be so proportioned that he have a part of each year's bills and not one to have the first years bills & another ye last years. But if it so happen that it must be proportioned to pay one man his Claims by himself I believe it were better to Joyn so many together as may be convenient and that will bear a proportion. And sometimes where the sum is small & will not admitt of a bill for each year then to give a bill either of the second or third year for as I said before to give one the first and another ye last will be hard measure to some.

I have thus ventured to give a small acct. how I intend to manage it in my precinct believing it may give you some light towards Distributing them in yours, I remain Sir,

Yours very humble Servt.,
EDW'D MOSELEY.

of Pasquotank Prect. per Mr. Cartwright.

PRISON BOUNDS IN 1747. THE OLD COURT HOUSE, &c.

(Original in Court House at Edenton, N. C.)

§	13	Street	13	14	15	16	Prison.	19	20	21	22	23	§
§	1	Street	1	2	3	4	Court House.	6	7	8	9	10	§

“State of North Carolina,

Chowan County:—Ss.

In Obedience to an Order of Chowan County Court appointing us the Subscribers to lay off the Prison Bounds in Edenton, we have according to the Directions of the said Court laid off the same, as appears by the above plan, and which Bounds is contained within the black line as appears by the said plan.

Given under our hands the 26th day of October, Anno Domi, 1747.

J. HULL,

JAS. CRAVEN.

N. B.—The Court House lots makes 1 acre.
 The Et & Wt street 1 do and 3340 foot.
 The 22 Lots $\frac{1}{2}$ deep makes $3\frac{1}{2}$ do and 7260 foot.
 The 25 foot at each corner $\frac{1}{2}$ deep 11000 foot.

$5\frac{1}{2}$ acres 21600 foot.

Which is 180 foot short of six acres 180

for 21.780 foot is half an acre 21.780

The odd feet is so trifling that it would not extend above $\frac{1}{4}$ part of a foot each way.”

From the above valuable paper we are not only informed as to the Prison Bounds allowed Debtors and persons charged with minor offences, but it also contains the location of the first Court House built in the Colony and used for the first time Nov. 18, 1718, from the above diagram it is absolutely settled that it stood on the South side of King Street, facing the present building built some time after 1747. The prison seems to have stood where the Court House now stands, the Court House referred to in the diagram was a wooden structure to which Col. Wm. Byrd in his Westover Mss. referred in 1729, as having the appearance of a "common tobacco barn." We do not know when the present Court House was erected, but incline to the opinion that it was between 1767 and 1775.

There was in 1747, on the Court House lots, "a building to hold the Assembly in" called "The Councill Chamber." From an order issued by the Chowan County Court, July Court 1744, directed to Mr. James Craven and Dr. Abraham Blackall, to lay off four acres at the corners, it appears that the first Legislative Building in North Carolina, stood on the North side of King Street," close on the back side of the new prison so far as the Council Chamber and Prison lots, &c. (See Vol. 1, No. 3, page 453, N. C. Hist. and General Register.)

A "Public Warehouse" had been built on the Court House lots, but nothing has appeared so far to indicate its exact location, possibly it was erected at the foot of the lots, next to the water, for convenience in transferring the goods stored therein to vessels for shipment, we may, as in the above instance, stumble upon some record yet, that will show the spot where it served the public.

FIVE POUNDS.

THIS BILL of Five Pounds shall be current in all payment in North Carolina according to an Act of Assembly made Novem. 27th, 1729.

Peter West or any Two of them, be and hereby appointed Commissioners to agree with any Person or Persons to Perform the said work in the most effectual manner and to purchase Two acres of Land in the place aforesaid for the uses aforesaid. And it is further Ordered that the Sheriff Collect from every Tythable in this County, the sum of Two Shillings proclamation money and pay the same deducting Commissions into the Hands of the said Commissioners for the uses aforesaid.

North Carolina,

Bertie County, Ss. At a Court began and held for said County, at the Court House on Timber Branch on Tuesday the Ninth day of February Anno Domini 1741, (think it should be 1741-2). Present William Cathcart, Peter West, Needham Bryan, John Harrell, Thomas Whitmell, James McDowall & James Castellaw, Esqrs., &c.

Read this day the Petition of Sundry Inhabitants of this County, showing that the Petitioners are Informed that at the Last Session of the General Assembly of this Province An act was passed, by which the County of Bertie was Devided and made Two Countys, the one of which to retain the name of Bertie and the other to be Called Northampton. That by the said Law the Petitioners are Informed that the Justices of the Respective Countys were Impowered to appoint a Place within each County for Building a Court House, Prison, &c., and to lay a Tax on the Inhabitants for Defraying the Expence of Building the same. That a Commission was made out by His Excellency the Governor in Consequence of the said Law wherein Sundry Gent named in the Commission were apointed Justices for this County, but that by some accident the said Commission come up to last November Court without the seal of the Colony so that the Gent. therein appointed Justices as aforesaid Could not be Quallified nor Impowered to Act in the Premises. That the Petitioners humbly conceive as the Case happened, the Place where the Court House, &c., should be built could not be Settled till the Justices appointed in a New Commission for Bertie should be Quallified. That the Petitioners are informed that Notwithstanding the said Law Impowered the Justices of Each Respective Court to appoint the Place for Building a Court house, &c., as aforesaid (the said new Commission not being compleated as aforesaid) a very small number of the Gent. who were Justices of the County of Bertie before the said Law was passed did at the Last November Court make an order for appointing a place where the Court house, &c., should be built in this County and Laid a Tax on the Inhabitants for Defraying the Expence of Building the said Court House, &c. Whereas the Petitioners Humbly Conceive that the aforesaid Gent. had no Lawfull Power to make such an Order nor could they Receive any Authority for so doing as the Petitioners Conceive from the Reasonable Construction of the said Law. That the Petitioners humbly Conceive the Place appointed by the aforesaid Gent. is very inconvenient to a Great Majority of the Inhabitants of this County, so that should the said order be Executed much the greater part of this County would be injured thereby. The Petitioners therefore humbly pray the Court to take the Premises into their Consideration and present the great inconveniency that might otherwise arise from the aforesaid Order made as aforesaid in such manner as to the Court shall seem Convenient, &c. T. Barker, &c.

Whereupon it is Considered and adjudged by the Court here that this Court have power to hear the said Petition and the same is refer'd till to morrow for Consideration.

And now (to-wit the 11th day of Feb'y, 1741) the Court (to-wit as before) taking into Consideration the Petition of Sundry Inhabitants of this County, relating to the Errecting of a Court House, &c. It is ordered that the Last Court's Order for building the Court house, &c., be reversed, from which order William Cathcart & Peter West, Esqs., Dissented.

And it is further Considered by the Court (Except the Dissenters aforesaid). That near Red bud Branch is the most proper place for building a Court House, prison & stocks. And it is ordered that James Castellaw, Thomas Whitnell and John Harrell, Esqs., or any two of them be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners to Contract with Workmen to build the said Court House, Prison & stocks at the Place aforesaid and to purchase Two acres of Land at the Place aforesaid for the use aforesaid. And that the said Court House be of the Dementions of thirty-two feet Long and Twenty-four feet wide and a Scemi Circle and a prison of the Dementions of Twenty-four feet Long and twelve feet wide and other ways in proportion. And that Publick advertisements be sett up for the undertaking said work and that a Levy of Two Shillings proclamation money for each Tythable in this County be Collected by the Sheriff and paid into the hands of the Comm'rs aforesaid (deducting Commissions) for the uses aforesaid. But that no collection be made of the said Tax for the uses aforesaid till the time appointed by Law for Payment of Publick Taxes. And Thomas Jones attorney for William Cathcart and Peter West Justices of the Last Court and Benjamin Hill, Peter West and Thomas Hansford Commissioners appointed by the last Court for erecting a Court House, &c., at Stony Creek, Prayed an Appeal from the Last order to the General Court.

The Court taking the former motion into Consideration Conceive that no such appeal can be Granted, because when the order of November Court was obtained, Capt. Needham Bryan one of the Gent. of that Court Publicly declared that he Never gave his Consent to Errecting a Court House at Stony Creek, but that his Design in Signing the Docketts was that all other Publick affairs might not be kept undone, and is now of the same opinion for which Reasons the said appeal is Rejected.

COMMITTEE OF SECRECY AND CORRESPONDENCE.

March 17th, 1776.

(Original in Court House at Edenton, N. C.)

Ambrose Knox, Esquire, came into the Committee and gave them to understand that Thomas Durant and Company of the Island of Santa Croix merchants had consigned to him a Sloop called the Two Brothers Commanded by Sanford Thompson. The Vessel being Danish property with a cargo of which the following are the contents. That is to say Sixteen Kegs of Gun Powder, seven Hogsheads of Muscovado Sugars, One Hogshead of Rum, Six pieces of Russia Duck, one piece of German Osnaburgs, one Bagg Pepper, Three Iron Cannon, a Barrel of Coffee and one Barrel of Gun Powder.

In the whole it appears to us that this Vessel has imported five hundred and Seventy-two and one half pounds of gun powder and the above Cannon for the General Cause.

On the above premises, We think it a duty to admit the said Sandford Thompson Commander of the said Sloop to Land her Cargoe, and as we are not the Proper Committee to Value the aforesaid Powder & Cannon, We therefore humbly submitt that matter to the General Convention to be held at Halifax on the Second day of April next.

Observations, Thomas and Christopher Durant are partners.

The Keggs are very large and I should believe they will contain, each of them 30 pounds on weight.

Have our Committee of the County a Right to give him leave to Load, to value the Powder & Cannon? In the Invoice they're priced.

How is the man to proceed to get his money?

What Commodities may he take on board?

These following Acts am Ratified.

We regret that this is all we can find relating to this session of the Assembly in the Court House at Edenton.

BOND OF COMMISSIONERS TO DISBURSE THE MONEY
FOR BUILDING THE COURT HOUSE FOR THE DISTRICT OF EDENTON.

North Carolina, Sss. Know all men by these presents that we Cullen Pollock, Joseph Hewes, Thomas Nash, Edward Vail and William Lowther Trustees & Directors for building and erecting a good & convenient Court House and Sufficient Prison for the use of the District of Edenton are held and firmly bound unto his Excellency Wm. Tryon, Esq., Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the province afsd in the sum of Two Thousand pounds proclama-tion money to be paid to the said William Tryon, Esq., and his successors Governors of the said Province to which payment well and truly to be made. We bind ourselves and each of us, our & each of our Heirs, Executors & Administrators Justly & severally firmly by these presents Sealed with our seals and dated this — day of ———, in the year of our Lord 1767.

The Condition of the obligation is such that if the above bound Cullen Pollock, Joseph Hewes, Thomas Nash, Edwin Vail & William Lowther shall well & faithfully discharge the several Trusts in them reposed by An Act of Assembly intituled an Act for erecting a Court House and prison for the use of the District of Edenton and do and shall from time to time and at all times when they shall be called upon lay a Just state of their transaction as Trustees as afsd before the Assembly or such Committee as shall be appointed to settle & adjust the public accounts, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force & virtue.

CULLEN POLLOCK, (Seal.)

JOSEPH HEWES, (Seal.)

THOS. NASH, (Seal.)

EDW'D VAIL, (Seal.)

Sealed & Delivered In presence of Tho. Jones.

The above Bond is evidently given for the Disbursement of the money to be paid out for the Erection of the Court House and prison for the District of Edenton, and is we think without doubt the same building located on King Street in the Town of Edenton, N. C., now used as a Court House. We have carefully searched the records of the Courts of Chowan County for some Evidence of the time of its Completion and use, but have found nothing except the above bond, from which we infer the work was ordered by the Assembly of the State, and an account of the acts of the Commissioner will probably be found in the Secretary of State's office at Raleigh, N. C., and only there. The building in its Architecture and Construction, stands as a monument to the skill and ability of those who planned and erected this Most Substantial and eloquent public edifice.

ITEMS RELATING TO THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR.

(From the Executive Letter Book at Raleigh, N. C.)

Charleston, S. C., June 25, 1777.

DR. SIR:

The Marquis de la Fayette, nephew to the French Ambassador to the Court of Great Britain, and Baron De Kalb, who were bound to Phila' in order to join the army under General Washington, the former in the Character of a Volunteer, and the latter of a General Officer having with several Officers and gentlemen of their suite, put into this port, whence they proceed by land, occasion my troubling you with this, to introduce them to your notice, being persuaded that they will receive from you, en passant, such civilities as foreingers of distinction may Expect.

I am, &c.,

J. RUTLEDGE.

Gov. Caswell.

Francis Brice to Gov. Caswell.

Wilmington, June 29th, 1777.

SIR:

The Commissary's business calling Mr. Craike's attendance to some other part of the State, he thought proper to acquaint me with the Resolve of the Council for the removal of the Military Stores to Point Pleasant, desiring that I wd see it done. I should have received infinite satisfaction in being the Executor of a Resolve so manifestly necessary for the Security of the Stores; the first step I thought shd be taken was to inform myself, if a sufficient number of invalids were here to constitute a proper guard. On finding there was not. I then applied to Captn Vance, to know if a guard could be procured from the Artillery, who told me the Company at that time (yesterday only) had so few men it was impossible for him to supply the number necessary for the occasion, without taking away the sentries at the upper battery and the store where the clothing is kept. The only invalid being buried two days before my application. From these circumstances I have declined removing the stores, till your Excellency can point out some method by which a guard may be obtained, as without it the safety of them would be more precarious than where they now are, tho we are well informed of three Vessels of force being on our bar. The defenceless state of this river, makes the present situation of the stores very dangerous, and ought to be a matter of serious consideration.

Most respectfully, I am

Your Excellency's most Obt. H'ble Servant,
FRANCIS BRICE.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Extracts from letter of Sam'l Johnston to Dr. Thomas Burke.

Edenton, N. C., June 26, 1777.

I have had an opportunity of seeing an experiment of the new Legislature, and am as little pleased with it in practice as I was formerly in Theory, and am still of opinion, that your plan might, for ought I know, be well adapted to the government of a numerous cultivated people, it will by no means be attended with those Salutary ends which were, in contemplation, of its framers. The few good men or men of understanding and business, who had inclination or intend to be either of the Legislative or Executive Department are by no means sufficient to counterbalance the fools and knaves, who by their low Arts have worked themselves into the good graces of the populace. When I tell you that I saw with indignation such men as G—th, R—d, T—s, P—E—N, and your Colleague Penn, with a few others of the same stamp, principle leaders in both houses, you will not expect that any thing good or great should proceed from the Counsels of men of such narrow, contracted principle, supported by the most contemptible abilities. Hewes was supplanted of his seat in Congress by the most insidious acts and glaring falsehoods and Hooper, though no Competitor appeared to oppose him, lost a great number of Votes, Quince for no crime alleged against him, but that he was a man of fortune, was turned out of his appointment of Naval Officer of Port Brunswick, which was filled by a stripling. Persons are recommended as Judges of the Court of Oyer and Terminer in this District, who are scarcely qualified to execute the most inconsiderable Office in the State. The one who is best qualified and was formerly Deputy in the Clerk's office, has too much modesty to act, conscious of his Incapacity.

I give them as only a few specimens of the hopeful beginning of our new government, omitting to mention a number of acts, which in my opinion are extremely impolitic and ill judged at this time. The event will show whether I am mistaken. I wish to God I may be. I have resigned the Office of Treasurer of the Northern District and am succeeded by Col. Skinner, of Perquimans County, but though I am now out of Office and totally abstracted from all political concerns, it will always give me pleasure to hear from you.

Please make my compliments to Harnett, who I expect will be with you before this, and believe me with the most sincere respect and esteem, Dear Sir

Your most obedient Servant,
SAM. JOHNSTON.

Recommendaation of Mr. Robert Turner.

New Bern, June 30th, 1777.

SIR:

The bearer Mr. Robert Turner hath been out in the service of his country as Captain of Marines on board the Brig Pennsylvania Farmer and hath always behaved himself well in this station, and tells me he hath the offer of a Lieutenantancy in Col. Sheppard's Regiment, which if not already filled up, take the liberty of recommending him, to your Excellency for said Commission as I think he will fully answer the expectations of his country.

I am your Excellencys most obedient hum Serv'ts,
JOSEPH LEECH,
JOSHUA HEMPSTED.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Gov. Caswell to Pres'd't Rutledge, of S. C.

New Bern, 3d July, 1777.

SIR:

The bearer Major De La Port, a French gentleman in the service of the United States of America, comes well recommended to me by the Governor of that State. He is on the business of recruiting, has been some what successful here. From his assiduity and conduct I am inclined to think he will answer the purpose of his appointment. He has enlisted six more in this place and sent them on to join his party in Virginia, think he may be able to raise some recruits from among his Country men in Charlestown for which place he is now setting out.

This Sir, is to introduce him to your Excellency and I flatter myself he will meet with such countenance from you as his conduct and the importance of his employment may deserve. He calls himself Major but is recommended to me as Captain.

I have the honor to be with greatest respect and esteem,

Dr. Sir, yours, &c.,
RICHARD CASWELL.

Presd't Rutledge, S. Carolina.

Gov. Caswell to John Ashe, Esq.

New Bern, N. C., 3d July, 1777.

DEAR SIR:

The bearer Major De La Port a French Gentleman in the service of the United States of America, appointed in Virginia, has been by permission, some few days recruiting here and is now about to proceed to Charles Town where he expects to raise some recruits from among his country men. He is apprehensive he may be short of Cash, and requested he may be supplied, I therefore request the favor of you to furnish him on account of the State of Virginia, with fifty pounds this currency. I have not the least doubt but it will be agreeable to the General Assembly, especially as we have an acct. with that State for Materials furnished the Galleys building by them in this State, and have to acct. with them for articles sent out here for Muhlenberg's Regiment which have been applied to the use of our Troops.

I am with great respect and Esteem,

Dr. Sir, Yours, &c.,

RICHARD CASWELL.

John Ashe, Esq.

J. G. Blount to Gov. Caswell.

Contentney, July 5th, 1777.

SIR:

I was yesterday informed by Col. Robert Salter, who left Tarborough that morning that Col. William Williams was out there on some business and had received an express from Mr. Whitmel Hill informing him of a traitorous Conspiracy* formed mostly in Martin and the adjacent Counties but more or less in almost every County from North to South of the State. They were at some certain night to fall in and assassinate all the leading men. The discovery was made by some person whom they had lately taken up and examined, and it is generally believed there are some principal persons concerned in their horrid plan. If so it's more than probable they are acquainted with the unguarded situation of the Magazine of this State, and will make an attempt to destroy it. I beg leave to observe your Excellency that I think the Artillery Company at Wilmington are quite in sufficient even with the greatest diligence to the task of guarding the two ports, Magazines, &c.

J. G. BLOUNT.

* If the reader will refer to the affidavits in this number of THE REGISTER relating to the Tories, he will get some idea of this Conspiracy.—EDITOR.

Jacob Blount to Gov. Caswell.

Contentney, July 6th, 1777.

DEAR SIR:

You will receive a letter by the bearer George from my son John who come from Col. Salter's last evening in forming you of a most bloody plan supposed to be laid by some of the enemies of America; as to particulars I refer you to his letter. It doth not remain a Doubt with me but that there is some persons of note concerned in this horrible plan. If that should be the case, they will certainly make an attempt on our public magazine the first thing if it is not well guarded. I hope, Sir, you will take care of yourself.

I should have done myself the honor to have waited on you myself, but my family being all down with the flux, I could not by any means leave them. Mr. James Harvey is extremely ill with it. I despair of his ever recovering. Mrs. Blount, Mrs. Harvey and Ned Baker is extremely ill with it now. Upwards of twenty of my negroes hath had it, from Sir,

Your most obt. Servt.,

JACOB BLOUNT.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Gov. P. Henry, of Virginia, to Gov. Caswell.

Wmsburgh, July 9th, 1777.

SIR:

I beg leave to mention the case of Mr. De la Porte, a French Gentleman, to your Excellency. He was given to understand that several Frenchmen might be recruited in your State, and set out from hence on that business. I am sorry to hear he is so unlucky as to get into a quarrel, the consequences of which I hear are serious. I shall esteem it a favor if you'll please take notice of him and render him any proper assistance.

With regard, I have the honor to be Sir,

Your Most Obt. Servant,

P. HENRY.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Michael Payne to Gov. Casswell.

Edenton, July 14, 1777.

SIR:

I rec'd pr post your letter with the Commissions, and am at a loss to know how to act, as you have not mentioned whether there's anything to pay for them or not. I should take it as a very great favour if you would please to write me on that head, and oblige.

Your most obedt. hbl. Servt.,

MICH'L PAYNE.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Lt. Col. Henry Irwin to Gov. Caswell.

Tarborough, 16th July, 1777.

DR. SIR:

Being extremely unwell prevent my attending at Halifax. I am now got some better, and would wish your Excellency's permission to go all to the No'ward to join my Regiment, as I can't promise myself any advantage I can be of to the Army, staying here.

I am very sorry to inform you of too many evil persons in this and the neighboring Counties being joined in a most wicked Conspiracy; but am in hopes it may be stopped, as many have come in, and made all the discovery they know of. About 30 of them made an attempt on this place, but luckily I had about 25 men to oppose them. I disarmed the whole, and made many take the oath.

I am Dear Sir,

Your Excellency's most Obt. Servt.,

HENRY IRWIN.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Maj. J. B. Ashe to Gov. Caswell.

Halifax, July 18th, 1777.

I have just now handed a return to Col. Williams, (of the 9th Battalion) agreeable to your Excellency's directions to him. You will no doubt be astonished and wonder that such a Vast arrear can be due that regiment. . I haven't any news to write your Excellency, only that one of the Royal Bloods of France (the Marquis de Lafayette) recommended by Mr. Franklin, passed this a few days since on his way to the Grand Army. I am with due respect,

Your Excellency's very obed't very h'ble Servant,

J. B. ASHE.

His Excellency Governor Caswell.

Robert Smith to Gov. Caswell.

Edenton, 19th July, 1777.

SIR:

I went up to Halifax the 10th of this present month, when I was given to believe I should have the honour of waiting on your Excellency. I waited the 11th till night, when word came you would not be at Halifax before the 15th. I left a packet for your Excellency and Council, in the hands of Thomas Eaton, Esq., which, as you did not go to Halifax, I hope he forwarded. It concerned the Brig King Taminy which I have had fitted out, and she is now ready to take her cargo; indeed I ordered thirty Hhds of Tobacco to be put on board her, the sails overhauled, and the rigging set up. I req'd another person might be appointed in my room Commissioner of her, as there would be an impropriety in my acting as agent for the Congress and Com'r for the State; especially as the Congress were to become Charterer, they would necessarily expect I would make the best bargain for them I could, and this State would have an equal right on their part to expect it. I mentioned that I was willing to Charter the Brig, have her valued, and on account of Congress would insure her out and back, from Nants, Bordeaux or Port L'Orient and execute the Charter party, with your Excellency and the Council! or if you thought proper to appoint some person here I could execute it with them. As she now waits for your determination, the sooner it comes, the better.

I have the honor to be Your Excellency's Most obed &

Very h'ble Servt.,
ROB SMITH.

Will Hooper to Gov. Caswell.

Tinian, July 21st, 1777.

SIR:

By the death of Capt. Forster who was appointed a Commissioner for the Washington Armed Vessel, it has become necessary that his place should be immediately supplied. As the Assembly have invested the Govr & Council with a power for this purpose, it becomes very interesting to the public that they should exercise it without delay.   The Capt. of the Vessel informs me that Mr. Toomer will undertake the office of Commissioner. His character in point of industry and integrity is unsullied, and his capacity in the common affairs of life good; he is not a seaman by profession, but upon the whole, with his other good qualities, has the best pretensions, to it of any I know here who will accept the charge. I have heard that Capt. Ellis is not adverse to this office, but as he lives 12 or 14 miles from the town, I doubt it would be attended with inconvenience to himself and the public.

I am Sir, with greatest respect,

Your Excellency's Most obt. Servt.,

WILL HOOPER.

Robt. Smith to Gov. Caswell.

Edenton, 24th July, 1777.

SIR:

The last time I had the honor of addressing your Excellency was on the 19th instant, in which I mentioned my having been at Halifax, with the intention of meeting you and your Council to conclude what should be done about the armed Brig King Taminy which the General Assembly thought proper to appoint me Commissioner for. Since I received the resolve of the Assembly, I have done my best to have her fitted ready for sea, and have put the greatest part of her Cargo, to-wit, Tobacco on board, but am now stopped from proceeding any further, as I am ordered by the Assembly to load her out on Continental account and have her by Congress insured, and as I act for the secret Committee as agent, I can not with any degree of propriety, Value the Brig, ascertain the freight and make out a charty party. I therefore inclosed your Excellency the Copy of the Resolve of the Assembly, with the request you would either appoint one as the Commissioner for the King Taminy, or allow men of judgment to set such value on the vessel and freight for the month as you might think proper, and for you & the Council, I was willing to charter her and on account of the Congress I would insure her against all risque whatever.

It's true at both times I forgot to mention, and I would rather avoid it now, if I could, but, the Taminy must not stay, they grumble enough already I mean the People. But I now will venture, should you and your Council not incline to Charter to me, to name Mr. Chs Bondfield, Mr. Josiah Collins or Mr. John Smith, as men fit to be appointed or any of them Com'rs for the King Taminy. I think they would do justice, but am not sure whether they may act, tho' some of them I have no doubt will, and therefore it might be well to name them all or any of them. Your an'sr by return of this Express would much oblige me. I have the honor to be Sir,

Your obed't Servt.,

ROB SMITH.

To Gov. Caswell.

Francis Brice to Governor Caswell.

Wilmington, July 25, 1777.

SIR:

In the death of Mr. John Forster the public have lost a warm friend to American liberty, and the privateer Gen'l Washington is left without any one to procure the necessary articles for the Ship's use, except the Captain who must purchase every material at a much larger price than a person particularly appointed for that purpose, as if one was nominated, he might get a quantity of necessaries together, which would come much more reasonable than buying out of the retail shops.

I was at a loss to mention to your Excellency as a proper person, for the undertaking, till I recollected Mr. Robert Ellis, to whom I mentioned the circumstances, and he will readily accept the appointment, should your Excellency and the Council confer it on him. Mr. Ellis has been accustomed to the sea from his youth & consequently pretty well acquainted with maritime affairs. I could wish your Excellency could order whoever is appointed, to replace the money advanced by Mr. Forster since his settlement at Newbern; If you should I shall take care to have the acc'ts properly attested. The warrant your Excellency sent him by me I have in my possession.

I am your Excellency's h'ble Servant,
FRANCIS BRICE.

P. S. I am told Mr. Toomer will also act as Commissioner for the Washington, provided he was appointed. Mr. Toomer is a very active, stirring man, he also knows something of shipping, and I make no doubt but he would fill that Vacancy with Credit to himself and benefit to the public. I don't presume to recommend either of these Gent. to your Excellency. I only mention them as the only two would undertake the business.

Your Excellency's H'ble Servant,
FRANCIS BRICE.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Richard Peters, Secretary, to Gov. Caswell.

War Office, July 22d, 1777.

SIR:

I am directed by the Board of War to inform you that Congress have taken into Continental pay as part of the Quota of Troops to be raised by the State of North Carolina; the Artillery Company of the State. You will be pleased to inform the Officers commanding the Company of his being received into Continental Service and that Congress direct him forthwith to proceed and join General Washington.

I have the honor to be your very Obed. Serv't,

RICHARD PETERS, Secretary.

P. S. I have had the honor of receiving no list of officers appointed in No. Carolina in the Continental Reg'ts with their ranks and dates of Commissions, as desired in a former letter.

Thos. Craike to Governor Caswell.

Halifax, July 23rd, 1777.

SIR:

I was this day preparing to send off the Powder ordered for the Magazines at Salisbury and Washington Districts, Col. Long having provided a wagon for that purpose; but from the intelligence we have rec'd from the Counties of Chatham, Guilford and Orange, I thought it necessary to consult with Col. Williams and Col. Long, who are of my opinion that it would be too great a risque to forward it till we are better informed of the intentions of these people. I have had the powder all started and put in good order, and shall wait on your Excellency's orders by the return of the express.

I am your Excellency's most Obed, h'ble Serv.,

THOS. CRAIKE, D. C. S. S.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Gov. Caswell to Robt. Smith.

Dobbs, 27th July, 1777.

DEAR SIR:

Your several letters of the 19th and 24th curr't I have received, but cannot, without the advice of the Council, do anything respecting the subject matter of them. The Council is to meet at Kingston the 4th of August next, when I will lay those letters before them, and if you think proper to send out then, I shall be able to inform you the result of the Council. I have much business on hand at present. You will therefore be pleased to excuse my not writing particularly to you and Mr. Benbury, assure yourself that every step in my power shall be taken to secure Mr. Brimage, and the other matters recommended in your letters shall be properly attended to by

Dr. Sir Your Most Obe't Serv't,

RICHARD CASWELL.

Robt. Smith, Esq.

John Ancrum to Gov. Caswell.

Wilmington, 27th July, 1777.

May it please Your Excellency,

This will be handed you by Capt. Ingram, at pres't Com'r of the Washington, &c.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's Obt. Servt.,

JOHN ANCRUM.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Capt. John Vance to Gov. Caswell.

Fort Forster, July 29th, 1777.

SIR:

I take this opportunity to send my return, & likewise Capt. Ingram's return; I should been in myself, but I was alarmed by these dam rascals, the Torsys. We are few in number but high in Spirits. I have sent your Excellency and the honorable Council a new projected Tory pudding with the plums in one end. I hope your Honour will approve of it. I have likewise sent your Honour a memorandum of materials wanting for the Artillery. We are very impatient for our paymaster, if your Excellency please to appoint Mr. Harry Toomer pay master of the Company; Sir, we are at present destitute of a Doctor. I have got one of my own appointing I likewise been under of a necessity of appointing officers to keep Decorum in Camp, for if I had not arrived in camp just as I did the Company would have been totally broke up. I have with a good deal of fatigue got them in good decorum once more. Money is our greatest object at present. I hope your Honours will approve the officers nominated by me, Mr. Phillip Jones 3d Lieut., Mr. John Cureton Vance, Jr., Lieut. fireworker. Sir, I have inclosed in the letter the proceedings of the Court Martial held on Mr. John Allen.

Sir, I remain your humble Servant,

JOHN VANCE.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Robert Smith to Gov. Caswell.

Edenton, 31st July, 1777.

DEAR SIR:

Your most obliging favours of the 27th by Egan, I had the honor to receive yesterday and am really sorry nothing could be done about the Taminy as she is now fully loaded and I suffer greatly as the whole blame of her detention seems by the people laid to my door. It is with real concern I observe your Excellency will once be under the disagreeable necessity of turning out to restore order in your Government and you have my most earnest prayers for your success, nothing I can do shall be wanting to help bring help about so desirable an end. Should Col. Dauge with his men call, he shall have every necessary can be had for him, as well arms as provisions, and the two Field Pieces, but from the best information we can obtain our neighbors in Martin, upper end of Tyrrell and Bertie, are not like long to be quiet. We had them placed to guard the Magazine with a strong guard constantly kept up, the readiness of the Country as well as the Militia of this Town to perform this service I can not omit mentioning with great pleasure and with no less satisfaction. I can inform your Excellency we have never yet had reason to doubt any person in this County, Perquimans, Pasquotank or Currituck having any hand in the Conspiracy at least none are yet impeached or even suspected. Last night Mr. Brimage was brought under guard to this Town from New Inlet and was committed to gaol. He with one Smith got acquainted with a Certain Campbell, as he called himself, who said he was Lieut of a man of war, and were endeavoring to get on board of the ships at Virginia the two former were taken, the latter stole a boat and made his escape. Smith is bound over. I would now send your Excellency a Copy of the depositions with proceedings thereon, but have really not time to have them copied. I saw some time ago I think about the middle of June last a letter to your Excellency from Mr. Bondfield with his resignation as Judge Associate of the Court of Oyer. We shall have many unhappy devils to take their trial for their life next Oyer Court and as I have not seen any new Commission I must confess I feel myself deeply interested in this matter. Your Excellency will see and I dare say View the present situation of this Country in as deplorable a light as I do—an exasperated Jury and a Lay Judge, my God! What may we not expect, Law should be strictly attended to, severity exercised, but the doors of mercy should never be shut—would a good Lawyer act at this time, I am convinced it would be a great means of giving dignity to Courts, strength to the Law, and restoring union to this distracted Country. Had the Assembly thought proper last time to have appointed Mr. Johnston he assured me then he would have acted, on that subject I have not of late conversed with him.

I have the Honor to be,

Your Excellency's Most Obedt & very Hble Servt.,

ROB. SMITH.

To Governor Caswell.

Robt. Smith to Gov. Caswell.

Edenton, July 31st, 1777.

SIR:

This letter you will receive by the hands of Mr. Millen, a Merchant of this place, he is a Gent'n for whom I have ever entertained a friendship and who has ever supported a good character; but from the alteration of times, wants to depart the Country. He was cited under the Act of Assembly to appear next Court to take the Oath, and come before me and engaged he would make his appearance—he has now a vessel almost ready to sail in which he wants to take his passage, and would be glad, were it consistent with the line of your Excellency's duty, to have permission to do so. His Capt. one James Ferguson who has sailed and served, in Mr. Hewes employ and mine these ten years and behaved well, has been out and brought in salt since these disputes began, and was intended to go on the same errand again, hath been cited and stands in the same predicament with Mr. Millen. I do not know how far their case may differ from the others, or whether their departure might not satisfy the law—this I submit to your Excellency. Could they with propriety have liberty to depart I should be exceedingly happy. I now once for the whole beg your pardon for the freedoms of this morning and have the honor to be

Your Excellency's most Obed. & very Hble Servt.,

ROB. SMITH.

P. S. Should you have any papers from Council to forward Mr. Millen* will be a safe hand. The Court's Laws are exceedingly wanted.

Robt. Smith to Gov. Caswell.

Edenton, 31 July, 1777.

SIR:

The bearer, Mr. Alexander Gelatly, I have been well acquainted for a number of years. He has acted here as Register, and in several other Capacities, in all of which he discharged his duty well and faithfully. He is and ever since I knew him has been a most inoffensive character, and a very useful one. He carries certificates from the Clerk of this County for John Weir, Alexander Clarke, William Knight, James McClain and John Baggs and James Henderson who were all cited last Court to take the oath. They chose rather to leave the country than to do so. They, some of them did not come under the Act of Assembly. I believe and considered themselves pointed at. They are all men who have supported very fair characters, have ever been peaceful citizens and borne their share of all public duties assigned them, but refused the oath of Government, and therefore entered into a recognizance to leave the country agreeable to Act of Assembly—the time is near out, and

* Alexander Millen was not a Tory, he was however a Loyalist, and from the records appears as a gentleman of strict integrity and high character. He died in Edenton the last of April, 1807; his will is on record in the office in Edenton, and made numerous bequests to persons living in the Town; his relatives are mentioned in the will and the major part of his estate bequeathed to them; they resided in Gloscur, North Britain. Mr. Millen is buried in St. Paul's Cemetery, Edenton. He left a legacy to the Edenton Academy.

they wait your Excellency for your permission that they may depart the Country. However different Mr. Gelatly's political opinions may be from mine, I think I can answer for the integrity of his heart, and I do believe he acts from principle. Anything your Excellency can do consistent with the line of your duty to facilitate the departure of him and the others on whose behalf he appears would be conferring a favor on your Excellency.

Most obed. & very Hble Serv't,
ROB SMITH.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

Gov. Caswell to General Skinner.

Dobbs, 6th August, 1777

DEAR SIR:

I have this day received from the Continental Treasury for the use of this State three Hundred thousand dollars, and as I wish the Troops to be immediately paid off that they may proceed to the No'ward I am to request you will come out to my house in this county, where the money is lodged, to receive your proportion, as soon as you possibly can. I shall immediately send an express to Gen. Ashe, and imagine both you and he will be here by this day week.

I am, &c.,

RICHARD CASWELL.

Robt. Smith to Governor Caswell.

Edenton, 13th August, 1777.

SIR:

The politeness of your last address I ought more fully now to acknowledge, had I time to do it, but as I did not before this moment of the Brigadier's setting out. I have not time to mention any more than that I am extremely distressed about the King Taminy. heaven, I do not know what to do. Were she mine I would have burnt her long ago, rather than had the complaints on me she has occasioned. For God's sake believe me.

Genl. Skinner will inform you of the situation of Dauge. I have done and shall do all in my power to further his march. Your Excellency will likewise be informed of Legate's being now secure in our Gaol, &c., &c. I have the honor to be,

Your Excellency's Most Obed. Ser'vt,
ROB SMITH.

General Isaac Gregory to Governor Caswell.

Camden County, 19th August, 1777.

SIR:

Mr. James Ferebee being apointed 2nd Major in the Camden Reg't of Militia, he being put over every Capt. in the Reg't thought it might be disagreeable, gave his Com'd up, and it was agreed on in our Court Martial that Mr. John Gray should have that Com'n as being the oldest Capt.; therefore I trouble you, if you think proper, to send a Commission to him. Col. Dauge will take care to bring or send it over. The news here is that there is two hundred sail of shipping in Chesapeake Bay, expected to be part of Lord Howe's fleet.

I am Sir, with due respect,
ISAAC GREGORY.

President John Hancock to Gov. Caswell.

Philadelphia, August 22d, 1777.

SIR:

The Congress having received intelligence from Virginia, that the fleet of the enemy were seen near the Capes of the Chesapeake, on the 15th inst., and not knowing what may be their views upon the Southern Coast, have come to the esteemed Resolve, earnestly recommending to you to have all the Naval and Military Stores removed, with the utmost expedition, to places of greater security.

I have the pleasure to congratulate you on the success of Gen'l Stark, who commanded a party of two thousand mostly militia, in the Northern Department. For the particulars I beg leave to refer you to the enclosed printed account.

I have the honor to be with greatest respect, Sir,

Your most obed't h'ble Servt.,

JOHN HANCOCK,

Presid't

Gov. Caswell to Robt. Smith.

Dobbs, 27th July, 1777.

DEAR SIR:

Since writing to you this morning I am induced to believe from information I have received from the Westward, that the Tories there have been some time assembling under pretence of going to Cross Creek to take Salt there stored, but I rather fear they will attempt to get possession of our Magazine at Cape Fear? Col. Williams with the Continental Troops which were at Halifax, are on their March against them, and I shall order Col. Sheppard's Battalion to join him, but as they are new recruits and without arms, I must beg.

if you can furnish 300 stand, to send them out by Col. Dauge's recruits, who are ordered immediately out, and also the Two Field Pieces Mr. Hewes had bro't in for public use, with every appendage thereto, and other warlike instruments you may think we shall stand in need of, which will not too much retard the march of their Troops.

I am, &c.,

Robert Smith, Esq.

RICHARD CASWELL.

Joseph Blount, Robt. Smith and Chas. Bondfield to Gov. Caswell.

Edenton, N. C., Sept. 30th, 1777.

SIR:

It now from the following circumstances becomes our duty to inform your Excellency that the Prisoner under the condemnation of death and reprieved by your Excellency and your Council 'till the meeting of the next General Assembly, as well as many others now Confined in our jail charged with Criminal Offences, many of them have been found guilty by the grand jury for this District for Misprison of Treason, who from the ill repair the said jail is now in and the impossibility of making it at any rate safe, without a Guard may with the utmost ease make their escape, at whatever time they please, and bid defiance to the Laws they have violated by the determination and verdict of their Country. Our County and Town have hitherto guarded the jail and Magasine which the Commanding Officer in concert with them thought necessary, never doubting but the charge would be made a general one, as equally interesting to the whole State. But as some Reports have lately prevailed that the Charges already due and arisen for keeping a guard for the purposes before mentioned, will not be allowed without a sanction from your Excellency and Council, the guard refused to do any further duty, and the Magasine which is of the utmost consequence, as well as the jail, are now for want of a Guard exposed to the bad designs of any Villain. We conceive by the Constitution you have full power of and the ordering the Militia vested in you, we think it proper to desire of your Excellency that you would with the advice of your Council, give orders to the Commanding Officer of the Militia to order such a guard to be kept as he may think sufficient for the preservation of the Magasine & the safe keeping the jail, and we do assure your Excellency that the stores at present in the Magasine in this Town are of too much Consequence to be neglected.

We are your Excellency's Most Obt. Servts.,

JOSEPH BLOUNT,
ROB. SMITH,
CHAS. BONDFIELD.

Sam'l Johnston to Gov. Caswell.

Hayes, 1st October, 1777.

DEAR SIR:

The Bearer Mr. Alexander Black, waits on your Excellency to procure a safe conduct for himself and some others, who are about to leave this State under the late Act of Assembly. I take the liberty to recommend them to your Excellency as men of fair character and inoffensive in their conduct, and therefore hope to experience your wanted Candour and humanity in Expediting the necessary passports. I found myself under a necessity of declining to act as Judge of the Court of Oyer. All the Bar concurred in my opinion.

Enclosed are the last papers. I would have wished to have sent you more particular accounts, but none such are come to hand, which makes me fear there is nothing good for us. I tremble for Philadelphia.

I hope to hear by the return of the bearer, that you & your family are perfectly recovered, be pleased to present my most respectful Compliments to Mrs. Caswell and be, with the greatest respect and esteem Sir,

Your Excellency's most Obt. Servant,
SAM'L JOHNSTON.

Gen. Washington's Letter to Hon. John Hancock.

Camp at Pennibacker's Mill, 5th October, 1777.

SIR:

Having received intelligence thro' two intercepted letters, that Genl. Howe had detached a part of his force for the purpose of reducing Belling's Fort, and the Forts on Delaware, I communicated the accounts to My General Officers, who were unanimously of the opinion that a favorable opportunity offered to make an attack upon the Troops, which were at or near Germantown. It was accordingly agreed that it should take place yesterday morning, and the following dispositions were made. The Divisions of Sullivan and Wayne flanked by Conway's brigade were to enter the town by the way of Chestnut Hill, while Gen'l Armstrong with the Pennsylvania Militia should fall down by the Manatawny road by Vandering's Mill and get upon the Enemy's left and rear. The divisions of Green and Stephen's flanked by McDougall's Brigade were to enter by taking a circuit by way of the Lime Kiln Road at the Market House, and to attack their right wing, and the Militia of Maryland and Jersey, under Genls. Smallwood and Foreman were to march by the Old York road and fall upon the rear of their right. Lord Sterling with Nash and Maxwell's Brigade was to form a Corps-de-Reserve. We marched about 7 o'clock the preceding evening and Gen'l Sullivan's advance party drawn from Conway's Brigade attacked the Picket at Mount Airy on Mrs. Allen's house about sunrise the next morning which presently gave way, and his Main body consisting of the right wing following soon engaged the Light Infantry and other Troops encamped near the Picket which they forced from their Ground leaving their baggage. They retreated a Considerable distance having previously thrown a party in Mr. Chew's house, who were in a situation not to be easily forced, and had it in their power from the windows to give us no small annoyance, and in great measure to obstruct our advance.

The attack from our left Column under Gen. Green began about $\frac{3}{4}$ of an hour after that upon our right, and was for some time equally successful, but I cannot enter upon the particulars of what happened in that quarter, as I am not informed of them with sufficient certainty & precision. The morning was extremely foggy, which prevented our improving the advantage we gained as well as we should otherwise have done—this circumstance by concealing from us the true situation of the enemy obliged us to act with more caution and less Expedition than we could have wished and gave the enemy time to recover from the effects of our first impression, and what was still more unfortunate, it served to keep our different parties in ignorance of each others movements and hindered their acting in concert. It also occasioned them to mistake one another for the enemy, which I believe more than anything else contributed to the misfortune which ensued. In the midst of the most promising appearances, when everything gave the most flattering hopes of Victory, the Troops began Suddenly to retreat and entirely left the field in spite of every effort that could be made to rally them. Upon the whole, it may be said the day was rather unfortunate than injurious. We sustained no material loss of men, and brought off all our Artillery except one piece which was dismounted.

The Enemy are nothing better for the event, and our Troops, who are not in the least dispirited by it, have gained what all young Troops gain by being in action.

We have had, however several valuable officers killed and wounded, particularly the latter, Gen. Nash was among the latter and his life is despaired of. As soon as it is possible to obtain a return of our loss, I will transmit it. In justice to Gen. Sullivan and the whole right wing of the Army, whose conduct I had an opportunity of observing as they acted immediately under my eye, I have the pleasure to inform you, that both officers and men behaved with a degree of gallantry that did them the highest honor.

I have the Honor to be with the greatest respect, &c.

G. WASHINGTON.

P. S. As I have observed, I have not received a return of our loss but from what Gen. Green informs me, I fear it is more considerable than I at first apprehended it to be. The Cannon mentioned above is said to have been brought off in a wagon.

To Hon. John Hancock, Esq.

Hon. J. Penn to Gov. Caswell.

Pennsylvania, York Town, Oct. 10th, 1777.

SIR:

On the 4th Instant about six in the morning General Washington attacked Genl. Howe's Army in different places, the enemy were surprised and drove everywhere for three hours. Our Troops behaved with great Courage, and to their honor tho' they passed thro the enemy's Camp where their Tents were full of Cloth and other things, yet none stopt to plunder, Gen'l Howe was so alarmed that it is said that Chester was pitched upon as the place for his army to retreat to, but unfortunately at that instant two of our Columns mistook each other for enemies, and both returned in such haste that there was no such thing as rallying the men. This was owing to a very great fog, that lasted until after the Battle which continued until nine o'clock besides there was no air to carry off the smoke of the Guns so that a man could not see 50 yards.

The enemy were astonished at our retreat as they looked upon everything as lost with them, they give Gen'l Washington great credit for the manner of his attack, as they often tried but never could flank us, we brought away all our Cannon and nearly all our wounded. Poor Gen'l Nash was killed by a Cannon ball with his horse. His brigade was to act with a Corpse-de-Reserve. I believe very few of our troops were engaged from what I hear, and that our worthy Genl. was killed at a great distance by mere accident, he was highly esteemed in the army. It is said Col. Buncombe & Col. Erwin are taken prisoners by being lame tho' not wounded. Your son I am told is very well indeed. The above are all I can hear of that belonged to North Carolina that suffered. We have no return yet of our killed and wounded, it is supposed to consist of about 700. The accounts given by different persons make the Enemy's loss to be very considerable, they say that near 300 wagon loads of their wounded were sent to the Barracks of Philadelphia, and that Gen'l Howe refused to let the Citizens walk on the field, before the dead were taken care of. Gen'l Agnew is dead. Sir William Erskine wounded in the head, supposed to be since dead, and a very large number of others killed and wounded. As soon as we get returns, I will transmit them to Carolina. General Washington has had a considerable reinforcement from Virginia and elsewhere, since the Battle. I hope he will give Howe another stroke before we lose possession of the river Delaware, which would ruin him. Our men are in high Spirits on finding they can make the enemy's best troops run by attacking them with courage, and are sensible now if they had rallied or not have been surprised in the manner above mentioned, that Genl. Howe and his whole Army would have been ruined. Our affairs to the Northward are in a good way, I hope soon to have it in my power to write you that Burgoyne and his Troops are in our hands. Enclosed is a letter from Buchanan, Commissary Genl relative to the Pork you mentioned.

Please inform Mr. Nash that I will endeavor to have proper care taken of the Genl's effects for the benefit of his family. I wrote in a very great hurry to him two days ago yesterday requesting he would shew you the letter, must now request your Excellency would communicate this to Mr. Nash.

I am with due respect,

Your Obt. Servt.,

J. PENN.

Since writing this letter I am told that Gen. Washington is marching towards Philadelphia, to give Genl. Howe another attack, his men are in high spirits, we are still in possession of the River. Miss Lucy Leonard a young lady lately out of the city, says the British officers have long faces, and declare that they have not had such a drubbing since Bunker Hill, that the city appears to be in mourning, the cry of the Tories was that they must leave the town with Genl. Howe, that all the Hospitals with several empty houses could not contain their wounded, that Genls. Agnew, Grant, Kniphausen, and Sir William Erskine had died of their wounds. Your son is well. I am told that Genl. Nash was wounded in the beginning a great way off by accident, as he could not be seen. A gentleman informs he was so ill as to make any assistance unnecessary, and that he left him Monday at the last gasp.

I am yours, &c.,

JOHN PENN.

Letter from Chas. Bondfield to Gov. Caswell.

Edenton, 8th Nov., 1777.

SIR:

On receiving your Excellency's Commission appointing me Commissioner for fitting out armed Vessels at the Port of Edenton, I drew on William Skinner, Esq., Treasurer of the Northern District for the sum of One Thousand Pounds, which Mr. Robert Smith told me, I was by a Resolve of the Assembly empowered to do, as I had not at that time seen the Resolve, and Mr. Smith told me he had, I took it for granted that I was acting right. Mr. Skinner advanced the money on my order, since which it appears that I should have had a warrant from your Excellency on the Treasury for what money I should want for that purpose, as there was at that time several demands against the King Taminy and more daily accruing, and I not being furnished with the Resolve of the Assembly to Know in what manner to act, will I hope excuse me for not applying to your Excellency for a warrant sooner, which you will be so good as to give to Mr. Skinner who has my receipt for the money.

I have chartered the Brig King Taminy to Messrs. Hewes and Smith, on account of the Congress, a copy of the Charter party and an account of the disbursements, I shall furnish your Excellency with by Mr. Hewes when he goes for New bern.

I am your Excellency's most Obedt. Servt.,
CHAS. BONDFIELD.

James Blount's Letter to Gov. Caswell.

Edenton, Dec. 3d, 1777.

SIR:

I've received your letter by express bearing date Nov. the twentieth, 1777. The contents of which shall, as far as is in my power, be complied with. I've a guard now of twenty-eight. My orders to the Captains are for thirty, but between twenty and thirty appear if your Excellency should think such a guard insufficient I shall be glad of further orders. (The Town Company is ordered to appear on an alarm, so that they are excused only on exigencies) without anything should happen more than we know of, perhaps the guard and Company before mentioned may be sufficient. A Dutchman from Maryland, has raised the price of salt, within a few days to fourteen dollars, which enrages the Country people in this place. There was a Deserter from the Fourth Regiment sent here by Mr. George Little from Hertford County, which he wrote was by your Excellency's orders (the letter was directed to Gen'l Skinner or me) therefore shall be glad to know what to do with him and any others that may come. Genl. Skinner will show your Excellency Mr. Little's letter.

From Sir, Your most respectful hum'l Servant,
JAMES BLOUNT.

The foregoing letters are all taken from the Governor's letter book in the Executive office at Raleigh, N. C.

QUERIES AND ANSWERS.

"A few days ago a duel was fought between Dr. Frederick Ramcke and Capt. Butler, both of Edenton, in which the latter was wounded in the thigh, when both parties were apparently satisfied; but afterwards Dr. R. went into his shop, and by firing two pistols through his head, put a period to his life." Raleigh Register of Sept. 9, 1800.

We received the above item from Mr. Marshall De Lancey Haywood, of Raleigh, N. C., too late to place under the item relating to this duel in this number of the Register, page 25; we are under obligation to Mr. Haywood for his kindness.

Col. Matthew Moore, of Albemarle Co., Va., settled in Stokes Co., N. C., at the foot of Sauratown Mountain, where he owned 1,000 acres of land, including "Morris Knob." He md. 1757 (aged 19) his schoolmate Letitia (aged 15) daughter of Samuel and Nancy (Redd) Dalton, her father Samuel Dalton died in 1805, aged 106, at the home of his grand-son Matthew Redd Moore, Jr., and his daughter Letitia, who died in 1838. All are buried at the foot of Sauratown Mountain. Can any one tell me if there are any tombstones at their graves and if so, give the copy of their epitaphs?

Did Col. Matthew Moore serve in the Revolution? or was he only of the Militia? His father Wm. Moore, of Albemarle Co., Va., had two other sons—John and Edward Moore, a daughter who md. a Martin, one a Bullock, one a Crockett, one Andrew McAlley whose son John Moore McAlly was in Congress at the same time his cousin Gabriel Moore was in the Senate, from Alabama 1829–1835. He was son of Matthew and Letitia (Dalton) Moore, Frances Moore (another daughter of Wm. Moore) md. Capt. John Henderson, and his great grand-son Hon. John Wesley Gaines, of Nashville, Tenn., is now a M. C.

Was this Capt John Henderson a son of Bennett and Elizabeth (Lewis) Henderson? Capt. John and Frances (Moore) Henderson had sons Wm. Bennett, Matthew, etc., Henderson. Any information of these families will be gratefully received. Also any information relative to the ancestors of Wm. Ward, who went from Virginia to Kentucky and settled near Frankfort. From one authority we have it, that Col. Seth Ward, of Va., was the ancestor of the Kentucky Wards. Geo. Ward, son of William, once met a cousin of his from North Carolina at Covington, and seeing so many Ward wills, and noting the relationship of the family of William to a N. C. Ward. We hope to gather some information to enable me to connect Wm. Ward (who had sons Junius, Matthew, George W. and Robert J., father of the celebrated Sallie Ward, of Louisville, Ky.) with his proper ancestors either in Va. or N. C.

James Blount (son of Thomas) sold in 1706 his interest in the mills (known later as Lee's Mills, Washington Co., N. C.) to his mother Mary Blount, whose husband Thomas left 3 acres of land in his will to be set apart for the use of the mill. Wm. Downing purchased the land in 1727, who in 1737 left a saw mill to be cared for by Stephen Lee. Thomas Lee left instructions for Wm. Downing to continue the construction of a Pink or ship begun by Lee before his death; he left him G'd'n of his son Stephens. Wm. Downing was associated with Thomas Blount in his work. Blount was a Carpenter, a Ship-Builder and worker in Metals as well. He undertook to make the letter C, with which to stamp the first set of weights and measures ever brought into the State. (Proceedings 1st Vestry). He left Perquimans Precinct for the South Shore in the winter of 1698-9. Court was held at his house in Perquimans up to the time of his removal. He was next appointed by the Governor one of the Commissioners to investigate an alleged Indian massacre, they reported the Vessel was probably driven down by the storm, that Blount and his family came near losing the boat they were in, and the Governor writing later says Blount was the heaviest loser and he did not blame the Indians. His abode in 1701 was on the east side of the mouth of Kendrick's Creek. The land about Lee's Mills remained in the hands of the Blounts for nearly 150 years. In 1801 Thos. Blount gave Washington County one acre for a Court House site. They accepted his land but a stronger cousin Col. Edmond Blount was on the Board of Public Buildings and he had the County seat located at Plymouth. His descendants at one time owned nearly all the land from Lee's Mills to Plymouth, a distance of nine miles, besides large tracts at other points. From one to three of his descendants were members of the Legislature near all the time. (Thos. W. Blount, of Roper, N. C., furnishes us with the above.)

“ Like leaves on trees the race of man is found,
Now green in youth, now withering on the ground :
Another race the following Spring supplies;
They rise successive, and successive fall:
So generations in their course decay;
So flourish these when those are passed away.

THE NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY OF THE COLONIAL DAMES OF AMERICA.

During the past year several objects of interest have claimed the attention of this Society, and, it was difficult to make a discriminating choice of work to which our efforts should be devoted. This choice was finally decided by our inability, at the time, to undertake new work, that already inaugurated requiring our entire exertions. A work which greatly appealed to us, and, was suggested by our President, Mrs. Gaston Meares, was the care of the ancient grave-yard of St. James Church situated in this city. This enclosure still contains the remains and monuments of many former citizens of this and the surrounding country, and our desire is, to beautify and preserve it as a monument to their memories. This work is still in contemplation.

At the first meeting of our Historical Circle, for 1901, our President entertained us most delightfully by reading a paper prepared by herself, "A Group of my Ancestral Dames of the Colonial Period." The records of this paper covered a period of two hundred and thirty years, its annals beginning in 1671, and it was replete with valuable historic information and beautiful in diction.

At our next meeting was read, by one of our members, Mrs. M. F. H. Gouverneur, a manuscript "Diary of Sally Fairfax," a Virginia Girl of the Colonial period, whose short life was full of promise and whose quaint comments on passing events, were greatly enjoyed.

This young lady was the daughter of the Lord, Rev. Bryan Fairfax, and Elizabeth Cary, his wife. Her home was 'Tolston,' the family mansion of her parents. She was the "Pet Marjorie," of General Washington and danced with him at 'Kleggets Tavern,' Alexandria, at a ball given on the anniversary of her sixteenth birth night. One of her family, Ann Fairfax, had married Lawrence Washington, another, Hannah, married Warner Washington, and she herself, was engaged to a relative of General Washington, at the time of her early death.

At these meetings two of our Dames, Mrs. Warren G. Elliott, of this city and Mrs. Thomas A. Jones, of Asheville, N. C., regaled us with sweet music of 'ye olden time.' At another meeting, historical publications and several valuable private letters of ancient date were read. One of these letters, written by a lady of Wilmington to an absent friend, gave a graphic description of the visit of General Washington to this city, which was then taking place, and the manner in which he had been received and was being entertained.

This part of our work we hope will grow in favor and bring to light much historic data now buried in oblivion. The 'Circles' have been established in several cities and towns of the State, for the purpose of collecting, as far as possible, all data of the Colonial period and records from private sources for the benefit not only of this Society, but for the public at large. Their work is one of research and preservation in order to awaken a greater interest in such knowledge.

On the 1st of May, 1901, we made our second annual Pilgrimage to Old St. Philips, on the Cape Fear river. After a short religious service conducted by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Cheshire, Mr. James Sprunt, to whom we are indebted for the revision and enrichment of much of our historic information, read a paper prepared by himself, on "Spencer Compton, Earl of Wilmington," for whom our city is named. This paper was one of great research, deeply interesting, and, not without considerable humor. Col. A. M. Waddell, then read a fine address on the "Early Explorers of the Cape Fear," full of historic facts. This gentleman kindly yielded to many requests, and, later in the day as the evening shadows were beginning to gather, read to us a narrative, which he had written, and read to us at a former meeting, called "The Bride of St. Phillips'." Standing by the monument which covered all that was mortal of this Bride, the touching story of her short life was given in words of pathos and beauty.

The Society, in order to preserve the different papers and addresses read at these celebrations, has collected and had them published, under the title, "Old Brunswick Pilgrimages." Many Dames from other parts of the State were present and several of the schools of the city attended.

The Society has received from a life member, Miss Ida Moore, of Washington, D. C., on behalf of her sister, the late Mrs. James E. Harvey, who was also a life member, a gift of five hundred dollars, as a contribution to the St. Phillips' fund. It is proposed, out of this fund, to erect a tablet to the memory of their ancestor, Col. Maurice Moore, who donated the land for the establishment of the Town of Brunswick, and for the erection of this Church, stating in the inscription, that the tablet was the gift of these ladies.

From a membership of less than a score, the Society now numbers one hundred and ninety-six, a large proportion of these being from non-Colonial States.

A year ago our "Register" was published, a work of arduous labor, and also copies of the revised By-Laws and Constitution of the Society. To the efforts and example of the North Carolina Society of Colonial Dames, is due in great part, the credit for awakened interest in and research among historic lore.

RELATING TO THE LOYALISTS AND TORIES DURING
REV. WAR.

Daniel Leggett to Gov. Richard Caswell. These with speed.

DECEMBER 4th, 1777.

May it please your Most Noble Excellency & your Noble Council, Tho' I dare not Approach you in person Nor Dare I Do it with these inconsiderate lines without Shame & Confusion of face. But Relying upon your Mercy & goodness I Send this paper as an humble advocate to plead in Some Measure that So-it May abate the Severity of your Just Displeasure & Appease that Stroke of Justice that I have incurred upon Myself by My horrid transgression & folly that I have unadvisedly fell into. Wherefore if A Returning prodigal, a true and unfeigned penitent May find Mercy in these circumstances I unfeignedly beg it at your hands. I hope it may please you for your honnours Sakes & for the Sake of him that hath promised A blessedness to the Merciful to Look in a way of pity upon one that earnestly Desires Nothing More than to be Number'd with your Subjects, though unworthy at present, I hope to find all my Superiors to Whom I think Myself happy that I have to address Myself to in this Manner, to be endued with so Much Compassion & tenderness to forgive One that is truly Sensible & penitent that I can think My Self happy upon every Remembrance of the same & Not willing to Affect one that is Convicted in his own Conscience. Wherefore if Should please your Excellency & to whom I have to petition to Grant Me My Liberty & the Oportunity to make manifest what I have promised by a Ready Compliance to your Laws and Commands I Should think My Self happy Nevertheless in All things Submitting to your Excellency's Disposal I Must remain as I have Made myself miserable without your Assistance which I rely upon your excellency's honor for in requital of which I promise to spend the remaining part of my time in obedants to your Commands it being all that I am able to offer with My prayers and Supplication to God for your Success & happy Continuance if it Does Not please your excellency to Admit of My being altogether at Liberty, I should be very thankful to be admitted to bale until the Cort ensuing at Edenton, the winter being very cold & I being Destitute of my Necessarys that My Life Depends upon your Honor I hope that what I was put in for last was not unbalable tho' indeed it is too bad I having but Little to say for My self More than I was Not in this unhappy affair at the first till I was seduced by others and never being acquainted with the general plan at all was Set on to Do More than I hope I shall ever be guilty of any more if it should please your honour to Let this Pass. But Use all Means that in my power to Suppress all that should in any ways endeavour to hurt the present Government. Wherefore if it should be to my opertunity & I should be any ways faulty to my promise I would Submit to the Most strictest that Malice could inflict therefore with all Submission I beg you would determine & Despose of me as you see Convenient, in expectation, of which I Remain Sir, Most unwortheest of your subjects.

DANIEL LEGETT.

EXAMINATION OF PELEG BELOTE.

Examination of Peleg Belote in the County Court of Bertie at the Court begun and held for the said County the 12th day of August, 1777, present the Worshipful Thomas Pugh, James Campbell and Jonathan Jacocks, Esquires, Justices of the said Court and among others assigned to keep the Peace of the said County.

The said Peleg Belote being brought before the Court declared that in a conversation with one Absalom Legate about the first of June last, they discussed about a Report which was then prevalent among some People, that there was a design to impose a new Religion on the People, and Compel them to worship Images, and that they both expressed a very strong disapprobation of such a design; that the said Legate endeavored to persuade him, the said Belote, to go to a Sermon which was shortly to be preached near Sherrard's, in Martin County, and the said Belote did accordingly go to Sherrard's House in company with the said Legate and his son; that they found one Rawlins at Sherrard's house; that after a private conversation which he observed between the said Legate and Rawlins, Rawlins asked him to walk, and they two being alone together, after some conversation relative to the worship of Images, Rawlins asked the said Belote if he could keep a secret! The said Belote answering in the affirmative, Rawlins asked him if he would be willing to swear he could, and pulled a book out of his pocket which he tendered to Belote, and Belote then kissed the Book, promising to keep secret what Rawlins should tell him; that Rawlins then told him a good many had concluded to support the Church of England, and if he would swear to keep secret all that he should hear that Man read or tell him, he would mention the Person's name, and refer him to him for further information; that the said Belote having agained kissed the book in ratification of a promise of this kind (believed by him to be swearing), Rawlins told him Sherrard was the Man, and gave him a stick with three notches which he said he was to show Sherrard, but he need not be particular as to any circumstances concerning it, as he would be there, otherwise it would have been necessary to do it in private; that nothing more passed on the subject this evening, but the next morning before Breakfast Sherrard asked Rawlins to take a walk, and Rawlins nodded to the said Belote to follow him; that they went in to the Barn, and Belote delivered the stick to Sherrard; that Sherrard then asked him "what that was for"; that Belote being at a loss for the answer Rawlins asked him if he had forgot already and desired him to speak after him, which he did some words that served to denote a concurrence in the Confederacy; that Sherrard then stepped and picked up a Sugar box which seemed to be concealed in a private part of the barn and took out a paper which he read very low, as if he had been afraid of being overheard, the place being very publick and that the time when the People were going to the Preaching; that the substance of the Paper was to the best of the said Belote's recollection an Engagement to support the Religion they had been used to, to decide disputes arising among the subscribers by arbitration, to oppose draughts (as he believed) and protect Men being draughted from being obliged to serve. Soon after they went out and Sherrard mentioned there was one thing he had forgot, which was that Belote should get half a pound of powder and two pounds of lead; and that he recollects no further particulars concerning the above agreement than what he has before received, but that they were to put in Money to support poor people in distress and employ a Reader.

James Rawlins, of Martin County, fleeing from thence to Mattimuskeet, being there apprehended on a Report that he had a hand in a Conspiracy carried on against the State of North Carolina, Depoeth and Saith:

That about the time of Laying the Constitution of Government (as well as he can remember) a General Muster was held at Plymouth, the Court House of said Martin County, on or about the 28th day of March last past, when John Lewelling & John Carter, Both of that County, going home in Company with the sd Rawlins (told him, one or both), that the Country was Like to become subject to popery, for which reason Lewelling sd there were a Necessity of Indeavoring to seek relief and had thought on Means proper, and hop'd for a Blessing on the Indeavour he, the sd Lewelling, said there must be an Instrument of Writing Drawn to which people Might agree under oath and Related something of the form and some few Days after ye sd John Lewelling and his son William came to the house of sd Rawlins and the sd Jno. Lewelling further declared the form which contained much writing and also the form of an oath of Compliance—all of which John Lewelling sd to the said Deponent if he would Take the Trouble to write down he should be well satisfy'd.* And that then his son should Coppy from the same which he also did as he the sd Wm. Lewelling Told sd Dpo. that he had wrote some for Martin, Edgecombe, Halifax and think he sd for Bartee and Teril. He also heard James Sherod say he had wrote some and likewise John Lewelling. Now after Many had come into this Society, as it was Term'd, they became known to each other by word and sign; and some time after John Lewelling told sd Deponent that if they could destroy Whitmel Hill, Colonel Williams, Thomas Hunter, Nathan Mayo, Colonel Salter and one Taylor, that then the Country would soon be settled. In Behalf of the King, this being proposed by John Lewelling, seem'd to be approv'd off by several others, But not yet put in practice as the Dep't knows off. After this John Lewelling Told the Deponent it would be a good scheeme to Git some Body to Diseffect the negroes and thought David Taylor would do it and Give out an oration of their Rising would draw the soldiers out of Halifax, whilst he and Company could seize the Governor and Magazenc, but hearing the Governor was not to Come at the appointed time it was Dropt for that time, but that scheeme became not public to Many, the Dept. believes, for when he objected against it John Lewelling said if he Divulg'd anything, Death was the portion to him or any one else. Another scheeme was to go to General Howe. John Lewelling with the Deponent agreed if he would go with him to do for him what ever he Could to advance him as also the Deponent expected to see his father and friends, but going as far as Scotland Neck, returned Back and in a few days something of the matter Became Discovered, When John Lewelling persuaded the Deponent to flee and not to be taken by any means; accordingly he fled from home the 5th day of July.

*But sd Rawlins refused, but agreed in hope of a Reward to assist him.

It is certain none of these vile procéedings were Incerted in their writings; but very Repugnant to them, some of the Express words in their writings were those to Govern their Lives and actions By the Just Laws of Morality and by the Scriptures of old and New Testament, to which they were sworn, which caused Many to be Cald in the proceedings of Cruelty, I believe altho first proposed by John Lewelling.

FROM JAMES RAWLINS TO THE WORSHIPFUL JUSTICES OF NEW BERN.

Some days past, George Wainwright, from Martin County, a Great Friend to John Lewelling, was here. I expect to endeavour to hear some News by his short stay of what I had Related, and I knowing the Great Influence Capt. Lewelling has over that Neighborhood have Great Reason to fear he will make any attempts to invalidate my Testimony, and though no other person but myself could have discovered the Beginning of the Scheeme, unless himself. Yet I will acquaint you of some Evidence as yet I believe unknown,

At this time the Governor was expected at Halifax.

Though William Mayo had sworn something of the matter before, but all seem'd Quiet at the Time.

that may be Material. Richard Taylor, Sr., a near neighbour to Capt. Lewelling, told me in private that Lewelling had Told him if he could git but ten Men to Joyn him he would fall to work and kill them every one, speaking of Whitmel Hill and others that had threaten'd him as a Tory. This Richard Taylor told me Long since the Scheeme was begun; also James Mayo, Captain, had threatened Mr. Lewelling. To take him up for a Tory for which Reason Mr. Lewelling Desired Peter Tyler and myself to waylay sd Mayo on the Road to kill him, but when I told him I could not be persuaded, Peter Tyler and lent him his Gun and told him Tarry till he sent him victuals, which Tyler did, but saw Mayo not. This may be prov'd by Tyler and Myself. Again a few days before I made My Escape, Mr. Lewelling said to me it would be no Damage if he were Taken to swear that a Traveling Man brought the writings to My house and that I and that Travelling man Carried the same to his house, by which Means the Beginning would not be Discovered, so that I being a poor man have Reason to fear his power and Influence over others to My hurt, as all the friends or power I have is to declare the Truth and Humbly Crave pardon for having had any hand in sd plot or Scheme, testifying whatever shall Come to my Memory I will make known about the matter.

JAMES RAWLINGS.

Examination of John Clifton taken in the County Court of Bertie at the Court held on the 12th day of August, 1777, present the Worshipful Thomas Pugh, David Standley and Jonathan Jacocks, Esqs., Justices of the said Court and assigned among others, to keep the peace of said County.

The said John Clifton being called before the Court, declared that some time about the middle of May last, being on his return to Anson County, which was the ordinary place of his Residence, from the County of Bertie, he had occasion to call on a certain William Tyler, of Martin County, about private business and accordingly did call at the house of said William Tyler, and did not find him at home; that he then proceded on his Journey, but as a little further distance stopped at the house of John Staten, who was an old acquaintance of his, and whom he had seen for several years; that the said Staten accompanied him a little way on the road out of compliment and in order to show him a path he was to take to carry him to the Main Road, they then being out of it and which it was difficult to find; that before they quite reached this path, they met the above mentioned William Tyler, with whom the said John Clifton spoke aside for some time about the private business above alluded to, and it being necessary to look at some papers concerning it, the said Tyler and the said John Clifton returned to the said Tyler's house and the said Staten with them; that being come there, after their private business had been discoursed of, the said Tyler spoke to the said John Clifton (they two being private) concerning a secret of which the said John Clifton was at that time entirely ignorant and said, that Staten would accompany him to one James Rawlins, who could inform him of it; that the said Staten, upon their return to him, told him he would go with him to Rawlins', it being late, and that there he would be in the main road, that nothing had then passed in the presence of the said Staten concerning the secret, though the said John Clifton understood from Rawlins that Staten was acquainted with it; that upon their arrival at Rawlins', the said Staten told him that Tyler had been speaking to the said John Clifton of the secret known between them and that he had as good acquaint him with it; that the said Rawlins then took the said Clifton out, carrying a book with him, and told him before he mentioned anything of it, he must take an oath of Secrecy; that the said Clifton then told Rawlins he did not like to swear before he knew what it was for; that the said Rawlins declared it was only to employ a Reader, and he then took the oath, the substance of which was "to keep secret all he had or was to communicate;" that the said Rawlins then made him acquainted with a sign which had been agreed upon by the Parties in this business and which was as follows: A person possessed of the secret was to have a stick with three notches; upon being asked what that was for, he was to answer "A sign"; upon it being enquired "What sign," he was to reply, "The sign of a secret." The enquiry being still continued in these words, "Have you that secret?" the possessor of the stick was to answer, "I have;" that the words "be true" were then to be lettered between them; that this was all which was at that time communicated to the said Clifton, and the said Rawlins told him he should know more from one Lewellin (who lived at a little distance) the next day; that accordingly the next day the said Rawlins, Staten and Clifton, went to see Lewellin, it being settled by Rawlins before they set off, that Staten and Clifton were to wait at a School-house about half a mile from Rawlins' house, while Rawlins should go and bring Lewellin to them; that the said Staten and Clifton waited at the School-house, and some time after Rawlins returned, accompanied by the said Llewellyn and his son, all three having guns (the said Rawlins having brought his gun from home with him); that the said Llewellyn brought two papers with him, one of which contained an oath, which the said Clifton was to take, the other purporting an agreement to employ a Reader, and for each Man who subscribed is to pay ten shillings a year for that purpose, one half of which to be paid at Easter, the other at Whitsuntide, and also to support King George, and he further understood (but whether from the paper or the information of the said Rawlins & Staten he does not recollect) that the Business of this Engagement was to oppose Draughts and to be ready, when they had an opportunity, to join any of the King's forces that might come to assist them; that he was also informed each Man was to be provided with half a pound of powder and two pounds of lead; and the said Llewellyn & Rawlins declared, they would shoot any Man who divulged the secret; that the purport of the above oath, to the best of his recollection, was to support the terms of the Engagement above specified; that the said Rawlins & Staten gave the above mentioned Paper to the said Clifton, and desired him to get what subscriptions he could to it and to gain over all in his power; that the said Staten then asked them how many they had engaged in that business, to which it was replied, there were not many yet, but it would grow fast; that the said Clifton soon after left them, and disapproving of their purpose, had a great desire to reveal it, but was afraid to do so on account of the oath he had taken; that he never perused the paper but once after and burnt it the next day; that he never showed it to any Person whatever, or attempted to influence any one to join in the Association; that on the twenty-third day of July, following (to the best of his recollection) he went to his Brother's, Mr. Peter Clifton, in Bertie County, and gave him information of the above circumstances, and the next day together with his Brother waited on Thomas Pugh, Esquire, one of the Justices of the said Court and made oath to the same before him.

II. That no Justice of the Peace of any County in this Government, shall join together in Marriage, any Persons whosoever in any Parish where a Minister shall reside and have a Cure, without Permission first had and obtained from such Minister; under the Penalty of Five Pounds Proclamation Money, to the Use of the Minister.

III. That no Minister or Ministers, Justice or Justices of the Peace, within any of the Parishes of this Government, shall celebrate any rites of Matrimony between any persons or join them together as Man and Wife, without License first had and obtained for that purpose, according to the Directions of this Act, or Thrice Publication of the Banns, as prescribed by the Rubrick in the Book of Common Prayer; and if any Minister or Ministers, Justice or Justices of the Peace shall, contrary, to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, Celebrate the Rites of Matrimony between any Persons or otherwise join them in marriage, he or they so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, Proclamation Money; to be recovered and applied as herein after is directed; And if any Minister shall go out of this Government and there, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, join together in Matrimony any Person or Persons belonging to this Government, without such License, or Puplicaion of Banns, as is herein prescribed, every Minister so offending shall incur the same Penalties and Forfeitures, as if the same had been done in this Government.

IV. Provided, &c. That where any Parish or Parishes have not a Minister, it shall and may be lawful for the Clerk or Reader which shall be appointed by the Vestry of the said Parish, to publish the Banns between any persons desiring the same, and if no Objection be made, to grant a Certificate thereof; and such Certificate shall be sufficient for any Minister or Justice of the Peace, to Solemnize the Rites of Matrimony between the Parties so published.

V. That if any Minister, Clerk or Reader, shall grant a false Certificate, he or they so offending, shall be liable to such Punishment as in Case of Forgery at Common Law; and all such offences shall be prosecuted, tryed, and determind, in the General Court of this Province.

(Passed by the General Assembly, at their session held at New Bern Oct. 15, 1748.)

AN ACT FOR SETTLING THE PRECINCT COURTS AND COURT-HOUSES.

I. Whereas thro' the great Taxes and Charges this Government hath labored under, by Means of the late Indian War, there has been no Care taken by preceding Assemblies, to settle the several Precinct Courts to any fixed or certain Place, but have always hitherto been kept and held at private houses, where they have been, and are liable to be removed, at the Pleasure of the Person or Persons owning such Houses, to the Great Annoyance of the Magistrates and People; For the Prevention of which for the future,

II. Be it Enacted, &c., by this present General Assembly, now met at Edenton, at Queen Anne's Creek, &c., That from and after the Ratification of this Act, the Justices of the Peace that are now appointed for and in every respective Precinct in this Government, or shall hereafter be appointed within the Time limited in this Act for building the Precinct Court-houses, or the greatest Part of them, are hereby required and impowered to purchase the Quantity of one Acre of Land, in such Place and Places of their several Precincts, as is and by this Act is hereby nominated and appointed, for the erecting the said Court-houses on.

III. And for the better enabling the said Justices, or the greatest part of them, to purchase such Lands, and build the said Court-houses; Be it Enacted, &c., That the said Justices, or the greatest part of them, shall have full Power and Authority to raise Money, by a Poll Tax on the several Inhabitants of their respective Precincts, for the purchasing such Lands and building the said Court-houses thereon, not exceeding the Sum of Five Shillings per Poll, per Annum: which said Tax or Levy shall be paid to them the said Justices, or whom they, or the greatest Part of them, shall appoint to receive the same, by each and every Person respectively, in the same Manner and Form as they do their Public Levy, and under the same Fines and Forfeitures.

IV. And be it further Enacted, &c., That if any person or Persons shall refuse to sell to the said Justices, or the greatest part of them, such Lands as by this Act is appointed to be purchased for the use of a Court-house, for what the said Justices shall think to be the full Value thereof that then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful for the Chief Justice to issue his Summons, under his Hand, directed to Three Freeholders of the Precinct, where such Refusal shall be made; which Freeholders are hereby required on Oath, to appraise the said Land; And in Case the Owner of the said Land shall, after a Tender made him of the Money which the said Land was Appraised to, refuse to give a lawful Conveyance for the same, such Lands shall, nevertheless, be invested in the Publick, for the Uses aforesaid; provided that no Person's Orchard, Garden or inclosed Ground, be injured thereby.

V. And be it further Enacted &c. That if the Justices or the Major part of them, in their several Precincts, shall neglect or refuse to purchase the Land by this Act directed for building the several Court-houses, on, or to agree with Workmen to build and finish the same, (which shall not be less than Twenty Four Feet long and Sixteen Feet wide) within Six Months after the Ratification of this Act; that then and in such Case, the Governor or Commander-in-Chief, for the Time being shall, and he is hereby impowered and directed, to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons in each and every Precinct so neglecting or refusing; which Persons so appointed, shall have the same Power and Authority to lay the said Tax, purchase such Land, and build the said Court-houses, as the said Justices might or ought to have had by this Act.

VI. And be it further Enacted, &c. That the Lands hereafter mentioned be, by the several Justices, or the Major Part of them, in each respective Precinct purchased, to and for the building and erecting the several Court-houses on; That is to say,

For the Precinct of Chowan, at Edenton.

For the Precinct of Pequimans, at Jonathan Felp's Point, at the mouth of the Narrows.

For the Precinct of Currituck, on the Land of Mr. William Peynor, next to the Land of Mr. William Parker; or at Mr. Parker's as the Justices may appoint.

For the Precinct of Beaufort and Hyde, at Bath-Town.

For the Precinct of Craven, at Newbern.

For the Precinct of Carteret, at Beaufort-Town.

For the Precinct of Bertie, now by this Assembly laid out, at some convenient Place at Ahoskey, where the Justices shall appoint.

For the Precinct of Pasquotank, at such Place as the Justices shall appoint.

And whereas many Inconveniences hath happened in this Government, by Reason of the falling of the Courts, which too frequently have been occasioned by Failure of a sufficient Number of Justices to meet; For Prevention of which for the future, Be it Enacted, &c., That all Actions or Business whatsoever now depending, or hereafter to be depending, in the General Court, or any Precinct Court in this Government, shall not be discontinued by Reason or Failure of a sufficient number of Justices meeting at the Days appointed; but that all such Actions or Business shall stand continued till the next Court; Any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary, notwithstanding.

ITEMS RELATING TO THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR.

JOSIAH MARTIN TO SAM'L JOHNSTON.

Cruizer Sloop of War in Cape Fear River,
 October 7, 1775.

SIR:

Notwithstanding the respect I have entertained for your private Character, notwithstanding my repugnance to oppose to its merits your conduct in public and political transactions during the present unnatural, unhappy and much to be lamented contest between Great Britain and her Colonies which my long forbearance towards you must have evinced you have reduced me to the necessity I wished to have avoided by choosing between the two disagreeable alternatives of testifying my disapprobation of your conduct officially or taking upon myself the guilt of conniving at the undutiful behavior of one of the King's Servants which last being utterly inconsistent with my ideas of the duty I owe His Majesty I cannot hesitate to make my election of the former however painful my respect for Mr. Johnston makes that decision.

I have seen with astonishment your late appearance in the conspicuous character of Moderator of a popular Assembly unknown to the laws and Constitution of this Province and summoned and convened by yourself and I have seen with greater surprise if possible, your acceptance of the appointment of Treasurer of the Northern District of this Colony unconstitutionally and contrary to all law and usage conferred upon you by this Body of your own creation on whose other acts so derogatory to the just Authority of the King and so utterly subversive of the Constitution of this country I shall not here enlarge, although I do most sincerely and unceasingly deplore them. Your conduct in these instances, Sir, I am bound to consider such manifestations of your undutifulness to His Majesty and His Government and such an avowal of your participation in the present fatal disorders of this Country as render it altogether unfit and inconsistent with my duty to the King to permit you to continue Deputy Naval Officer of this Province and I am to inform you that I have accordingly appointed Mr. Archibald Neilson to supersede you as Deputy Naval Officer of this Colony from which office you are hereby suspended until His Majesty's Royal Pleasure shall be known.

I am, Sir

(A true Copy.)

JO. MARTAIN.

Your most humble servant,

JO. MARTAIN.

SAMUEL JOHNSTON TO GOV. JOSIAH MARTIN.

Edenton, Nov. 16th, 1775.

SIR:

I have this day had the honor of receiving your Excellency's letter signifying that you had been pleased to suspend me from acting as Deputy to Mr. Turner in the Naval Office with the reasons for such removal, and it gives me pleasure that I do not find neglect of the duties of my office in the Catalogue of my crimes.

At the same time that I hold myself obliged to your Excellency for the polite manner in which you are pleased to express yourself of my private character you will pardon me for saying that I think I have reason to complain of the invidious point of view in which you place my public transactions when you consider the late meeting of the Delegates or Deputies of the Inhabitants of this Province at Hillsborough a Body of my own creation. Your Excellency cannot be ignorant that I was a mere instrument on this connection under the direction of the people. A people among whom I have long resided who have on all occasions placed the greatest confidence in me, to whose favourable opinion I owe everything I possess and to whom I am bound by gratitude, (that most powerful and inviolable tie on every honest mind) to render every service they can demand of me in defence of what they esteem their just rights at the risque of my life and property.

You will further, sir, be pleased to understand that I never considered myself in that honourable light in which you place me, One of the King's Servants, Being entirely unknown to those who have the disposal of the King's favours I never enjoyed, nor had I a right to expect, any Office under His Majesty. The office which I have for some years past executed under the deputation of Mr. Turner was an honest purchase for which I paid punctually an annual sum which I shall continue to pay till the expiration of the term for which I should have held it agreeably to our contract.

Pemit me, Sir, to add that had all the King's Servants in this Province been as well informed of the Disposition of the Inhabitants as they might have been and taken the same pains to promote peace, good order and obedience to the laws that I flatter myself I have done the source of your Excellency's increasing lamentations had never existed or had it existed would have been in so small a degree that 'ere this it would have been nearly exhausted; but Sir a recapitulation of past errors which it is now too late to correct would be painful to me and might appear impertinent to your Excellency' I shall therefore decline the ungrateful Task and beg leave with all due respect to submit myself,

Sir, your Excellency's,

Most obedient humble servant,

(A true copy.)

SAM'L JOHNSTON.

Jo. Martin.

We are indebted to the State Records, Vol. XI, for the above letters by Hon. Walter Clark Associate Justice of North Carolina. Justice Clark has done a great service to the State, in the exceedingly valuable records he has compiled, we know of no living person who has done as much, certainly none who has accomplished more in gathering together, arranging, and publishing the several volumes now extant, it has been a Herculean task well performed and the people of his native state should be justly proud of his work, he is a worthy successor of Col. W. L. Saunders, to whose patient and untiring energy we are indebted for the Colonial Records.

LT. COL HENRY IRWIN TO GOV. CASWELL.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)

Tarborough, 16 July, 1777.

DR. SIR:

Being extremely unwell prevented me attending at Halifax. I am now got some better, and would wish your Excellency's permission to go all to the No'ward to join my Regiment, as I can't promise myself any advantage I can be of to the army, staying here.

I am very sorry to inform you of too many evil persons in this and the neighboring Counties being joined in a most wicked Conspiracy but am in hopes it may be stopped, as many have come in and made all the discovery they know of about 30 of them made an attempt on this place, but luckily, I had about 25 men to oppose them. I disarmed the whole and made many take the oath.

I am Dear Sir,

Your Excellency's Most Ob't Serv't,
HENRY IRWIN.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

CAPT. HARDY MURFREE TO GOV. CASWELL.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)

Camp at Halifax, 18 July, 1777.

SIR:

Mr. Samuel Jones, of Hertford County, who entered the Second North Carolina Continental Battalion as a Cadet, 24th of May last, who is at this place in order to March to the Northward, he is a genteel Gentleman like man. Since I was at New Bern last, Capt. Gardner of the 2nd Battalion, has resigned and Lieut. Standing says he will never join the Battalion again, I should be very glad if your Excellency would grant the said Mr. Jones a Commission as an Ensign in the second Batt'l; and send it by the bearer, as I understand there is to be some officers left in the State, on the recruiting service and he will answer for that purpose better than some that I have here who will not exert themselves.

I am your Excellency's Mo. humble Servant,

HARDY MURFREE.

I give my approbation to the above.

John Williams, Com'g Officer.

To His Excellency Richard Caswell.

COL. JOHN WILLIAMS TO GOV. CASWELL.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)

Halifax, 23d July, 1777.

SIR:

Yesterday morning Mr. Mallett arrived at this place from Cross Creek, and informs me that a few hours before he left home, Co'.

Hogan, who lives in the County of Orange, came into Town, and informed him the day before he left home, he understood a number of people in the Counties of Orange and Chatham had assembled in a body, and he being desirous to know what it meant, went to them, and found upwards of a thousand embodied, who said they were going to Cross Creek to get the salt that was stored up. A Lieut. in the 9th Reg't, a person of Character came from Guilford on Sunday last, who also tells me that, the day before he left home, he was at a public meeting of the people in Guilford, who seemed ripe for something daring and desperate, that they frequently drank the King's health, and damnation to all that would not join them.

To my own knowledge there is powder a plenty in the upper parts of this Province, but not any lead to be got; but as I understand there is several tons of lead belonging to this State at Cross Creek, I greatly suspect, under the cloak of getting Salt, they want to lay their hands on that article.

These reasons, together with our having nothing to do, has induced me to order the different Regiments under my command at this place, to march immediately for Cross Creek, and endeavor to get there before them, as I understand they are not to leave Chatham until Thursday, so that I am in hopes to be before them, and prevent their designs, be they what they will. When I said we had nothing to do, I meant that we should not (I expected) be ordered to the Northward, until we had money to pay the men, and of course be here doing nothing these ten days, perhaps.

Therefore, if your Excellency approves my conduct, please to direct the pay-masters, that are to supply us with money, to attend at Cross Creek, where I intend to march with all the haste I can, and stay until I get further orders from you.

I am with the utmost respect,

Your mo. h'ble Servt.,
JOHN WILLIAMS.

His Excellency Governor Caswell.

P. S. I intend to get arms of such persons, as we march, as are well affected to the State.

THOS. HOSKINS TO GOV. CASWELL.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)

Tyrrell County, 25th, 1777.

SIR:

As I have the honor of being chose Clerk of Tyrrell County, by majority of votes the first and second days; likewise have received the books and papers belonging to the said County from Mr. Archibald Corrie.—Wherefore request the favour of your Excellency, to grant me a Commission to act in the said office; and forward it when most Convenient to your Hon'r.

I should do myself the honour to wait on your Excellency in person, but having this opportunity, hope your Excellency will excuse me at this time. Your demands please to let me know, and I shall send to you by Mr. Benjamin Spruill at the next meeting of the Assembly. Your compliance will always be acknowledged by Sir,

Yr. very hum'l Serv't,

THO. HOSKINS.

N. B. I send enclosed a certificate signed by the Magistrates for said County.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. DAVID SMITH.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)

Dobbs, 25th July, 1777.

DEAR SIR:

I have this evening received information that a considerable number of persons in the Counties of Orange, Guilford and Chatham were some days ago assembling with a design, as they gave out, to go down to Cross Creek, to take the salt that is stored there. But it is suggested they have other views. I am therefore to request you will get what information you can respecting the matter; and if you have any certain intelligence of their being on their march, in that case you are to raise so many of Your Militia as you can depend on for the purpose of opposing them in any illegal attempt that they make, and give me the earliest notice; at all events let me hear from you, with a particular account of their transactions so far as you shall be able to collect them with every article of proof you can obtain by Thursday next at twelve o'clock, when I expect to be at the Court house of this County. This account you must send me by express, the expence whereof shall be paid by the public. Don't omit letting me hear from you by that time.

I am, &c.,

RICHARD CASWELL.

Col. David Smith, Cumberland.

COL DAVID SMITH TO GOV. CASWELL.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)

Cross Creek, July 26th, 1777.

May it please your Excellency,

I am requested by the good people of this place to address you, they judging it convenient and absolutely necessary that an armed company should be maintained in this County, till the act of Assembly can be put in force and have its due effect on those who refuse to take the oath of Allegiance to the State; it being evident that upwards of two-thirds of this County intend leaving the State, and are already become insolent, and it is apprehended will be troublesome.

I am therefore to request your Excellency and the Council of State that you would be pleased to order about fifty Light Horse, under vigilant officers whom you may appoint, to be stationed here; and should it be suggested that it would be difficult to raise the men in different Counties, it is imagined they could be easily raised here, especially under the command of Capt. Rowan, which shall seem most agreeable to your Wisdom, and consistent with the present circumstances of affairs; these would protect the good subjects of the County, and see the said (Act) duly enforced, without which it is apprehended the intention of the Legislature will be rendered abortive in consequence of this and in behalf of the above request you are troubled with this from Sir,

Your Excellency's Most Obedient humble Serv't,
DAVID SMITH.

Same to Same.

Cross Creek, 26th July, 1777.

May it please your Excellency:

Should you Sir, think it necessary for the good of the State to appoint any number of Troops to be kept here until the Laws shall be executed, I beg leave to commend the bearer Mr. Edward Winslow to your notice as a Commissary for the same, he is a good member of Society, and can more effectually supply the men in that way than any person here who would take that trouble.

I have the honor to be

Your Excellency's most Obed't and very humble Servt.,
DAVID SMITH.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

GOV. CASWELL TO MAJ. DAVID BARROW.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)

DEAR SIR:

I have received sundry affidavits from Edenton respecting the conduct of Mr. William Brimage, who is charged with being in the late conspiracy against the State, and concerned in certain treasonable practices. It appears to me beyond a doubt that he has been one of the powers of their diabolical plan. Therefore in order to bring him to justice, if he is not already taken, I am to request you do immediately apply to Col. Bryan, if it be practicable, and request he will send a party of the Craven Militia immediately to apprehend and bring Mr. Brimage back to New Bern, from on board the Brig, commonly called the Tory Brig. If Col. Bryan is not in the way, you will be pleased to consider this letter as an order to you to discharge this duty, Major Tilman, if he is in the way, you will please to show it. But at all events let the service be done. I would recommend it to the officer who goes down to obtain a warrant from the Civil Power. I mean a Justice of the Peace, for apprehending Mr. Brimage. On this letter being shewn, I persuade myself any Magistrate will grant a warrant. I do not know what County, whether Carteret or Currituck may be the place where the Vessel lies in, or I would write particularly to the Magistrates there. Whoever goes, let this letter go with them and I hope the service so essential to the supporting our present constitution will be performed. When he is taken, I will furnish testimony, which, I apprehend, will be sufficient for detaining him in Close gaol till his trial. Secrecy is necessary in the present case. A word to the wise is enough.

Please to let me hear from you on this subject as soon as convenient .

I am, &c.,

RICHARD CASWELL.

Major David Barrow, New Berne.

MAJ. D. BARROW TO GOV. CASWELL.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)
New Bern, July 28th, 1777.

DEAR SIR:

Your favor by Mr. McClewean I rec'd about one hour ago, I have despatched Lieut. Shedrick Fulcher with a party of men after Brimage, with orders not to return without him, provided he has not left the State, if so to make strict enquiry in what Vessel he took passage. I have taken a warrant from Mr. Davis which will answer the desired effect in this district. This is a piece of business which I had some reason to believe was put into execution by the Justices of this place some days ago, but on inquiry I find was neglected. I mentioned Mr. Brimage's Situation to Telfair, he assured me he should not have a passage in the Brig by no means whatever, except a passport from you.

I am Dear Sir, your mo. obt. Serv't,

D. BARROW.

His Excellency Gov. Caswell.

COL. DAVID SMITH TO GOV. CASWELL.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)
Cumberland, 29 July, 1777.

SIR:

I rec'd yours of the 25th instant, and agreeable to your order, I have made all the discovery amongst the Tories that the time would permit. I immediately on receiving the letter sent a man who I could depend on up Deep River as far as Col. Alston's and he returned this morning with a letter from Col. Alston, which gives the following account, that there was two men at his house one from Guilford, & the other from Chatham, and that he believed them both to be friends to the American cause, and they told them, they did not believe the Tories had any intention of rising, and that they never had heard of any such thing, only at Chatham Court House on the 21st instant, there was a meeting of the people concerning the salt, and they had sent to Orange & Guilford to know if they would agree with them not to send any provision to Cross Creek until they would sell them their salt upon reasonable terms; and they agreed to send two men out of every Captain's District to Cross Creek to make some agreement with the Merchants for their Salt. I was informed last night there was a party of men gathering in Duplin to go to Cross Creek for salt, but the Certainty of it I have not got yet.

I am Sir with the greatest respect,

Your Mo. hble. Serv't,
DAVID SMITH.

His Excellency Richard Caswell.

MAJOR D. BARROW TO GOV. CASWELL.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)

New Bern, Aug't 4, 1777.

DEAR SIR:

Yesterday Lieut. Shaderick Fulcher returned from Ocacock to which place agreeable to your order I dispatched him after Mr. Brimage, who had the day before he got down to the Bar, been taken into custody by Capt. Anderson, in consequence of information he rec'd from the Justices at Edenton. The night before Fulcher arrived at Ocacock, Brimage being on his parole made his escape to Roanoke Island, where he was taken up by John Mann of that place, and conveyed to Edenton. Enclosed is the number of men Lieut. Fulcher by my order had with him, and as I am at a loss what to allow them, I hope the Gov'r and Council will make them a generous allowance, as they undertook this expedition with much cheerfulness, and returned in as short a time as could be expected.

I am, Dear Sir, Your mo. obt. Serv't,
D. BARROW.

Lieut. Shaderick Fulcher; John Smith, Pilot; Mathew Wise; Beverly Rew; Southy Rew; Major Tuly; Boat Line, For seven days who found their own provision and other expenses.

His Excellency Gov. Caswell.

W. BRIMAGE TO GOV. CASWELL.

(From Governor's Letter Book, Executive Office, Raleigh, N. C.)

SIR:

Shall be obliged to your Excellency for an order to Capt. Anderson, at Ocracock to deliver my Portmanteau, &c., which he took from my lodgings into custody, and retains notwithstanding the Justices soon after my coming up to Edenton, wrote to him to send them, which he either never received or pays no regard to. Your Compliance will greatly oblige.

Sir, Your Excellency's very humble Servt.,
W. BRIMAGE.

Westbrooks, Bertie, October 10th, 1777.

ROBT. SMITH, OF EDENTON, TO THE GOVERNOR AND HONOURABLE COUNCIL AT HALIFAX.

SIR:

I came here on purpose to do myself the Honor to wait on you in Council, to have laid before you, the inclosed inventory of the King Taminy and her Stores, of which Vessell, the last Assembly at New Bern thought proper to appoint me Comm'r. It would appear from their Resolve which I only rec'd about three weeks ago, unattended, with any instructions from them, they intended, the King Taminy should be fitted out for the Merchant Service and chartered to the Continental Congress & by them be insured, not considering that I acted for Congress and by that appointment would in fact be chartering for myself a Vessel from Myself. I have however since I received their Resolve, had her hauled to a Wharff, her Ballast thrown out and hove her down and cleaned Her Bottom which tho' a good deal hurt by worms is in much better order than I could have expected. I had engaged some hands at the wages given out of the port at the time of her sailing, but on looking over the Resolve mentioned, I find I am authorized only to allow such wages as were given the 7th

May, since that wages have risen much and may possibly still rise more before she sails, I inclose the Resolve for your Perusal. After the foregoing state of the matter, I submit it to the consideration of your Honourable Board, and beg leave to observe in General, first that some merchant should be commissioned in Edenton to fit out the Taminy and execute the Charter party with me. From him I will charter her for Nantz, Bordeaux, or Port Le Orient, to return here with such cargo as the Continental agents in those parts may think best to Ship on board her. I will charter her by the month, and on behalf of the United States insure her at the Value may be agreed on untill her return, the monthly hire to be paid on her return and in case of her being lossed the hire to be stopped the very day it happened. Or the Councill may commission three men well acquainted with vessels, and their Value, to set a price on her and her monthly hire or wages & I will take her at that as before mentioned and execute a charter with you—in this last case, which will be attended with most trouble, the papers should be sent down as soon as may be, as she must lye idle till they come & with them his Excellency's dft. on the Treasurer for Five Hundred Pounds which I think the outfit will cost at least. In the next place if she goes on the voyage above mentioned she will not have Occasion for but a small part of the Stores, say 4 of the Smallest Guns, 6 Sweivle and about 10 Muskets and Ammunition in proportion. Ten men before the mast would be Sufficient, orders should be given about the remains of her Stores.

I have the honor to be, Sirs,

Your most obed. & very Hble. Servt.,
ROBT. SMITH.

COUNCIL OF SAFETY TO COL. JOHN BUTLER.

Halifax, 31st July, 1776.

SIR:

Your favor of the 25th of June is now under Consideration. We are sorry to hear the people of Guilford are still inclined to raise new disturbances in this Colony, and shall take every method in our power to prevent their wicked intentions being Carried into Execution. Gen. Person has orders to embody five hundred men from your District to reinforce Genl. Rutherford, and we expect he will induce the people of Guilford to turn out on this Occasion, which may in some measure prevent for the present any disturbances from that Quarter and as Colo. Folsome is supposed to be now in Guilford with a party of armed men, we doubt not he will take proper notice of the rioters there and reduce them to order. It is expected the Officers in each County will see the resolves of the Congress respecting the Militia duely observed & that the Colonels will Issue their Warrants to the Sergeants of the respective Companies to distrain for and Collect the fines from all delinquents. Hunter will be sent for under guard to answer before this board for his conduct and neglect of the Order of Congress.

We shall be glad to hear from you on every important occasion and are with respect Sir,

Your Mo. Obed. Servts.,

Signed by order of the Councill.

N. B. We have p'd your express the 3 dollars which you'll not include yr. Settlement with him.

THE EDENTON TEA-PARTY.

CONTINUED.

MRS. JEAN BLAIR.

Jean Duncan Johnston (daughter of Samuel Johnston and wife, Helen Scrymgeoure and sister of Gov. Samuel Johnston and Mrs. Hannah Iredell) married *George Blair.

The issue of George Blair and wife Jean Duncan Blair nee Johnston.

A. Helen Scrymgeoure Blair md. Samuel Tredwell Collector of the Port of Edenton (appointed by Geo. Washington, Presd't) for many years prior and up to the time of his death. Mr. Tredwell md. 2nd Frances Lenox. No issue by 2nd marriage.

B. William Blair never married. He was appointed in 1787, Clerk of the Superior Court of North Carolina for the district of Edenton, the position was filled with ability and credit.

* George Blair came from Scotland (North Britain) about the year 1756; he entered the mercantile business with Joseph Hewes and Charles Worth Blount, under the firm name of Blount, Hewes & Blair; they did a large and widely extended business, being importers and owners of several vessels. The port of Roanoke (Edenton) was at that time the most important "Port of Entry" in the Province. Her commerce extended to nearly all the countries of the Old World, the West Indies and South America. The imported goods were transferred directly from the vessels to flat-boats, which carried them up the Roanoke river to different points, from which they were transported by wagons, through the country to the stores of the smaller merchants doing business in the counties contiguous to the Roanoke River and its tributaries; who, in exchange for these goods, returned in the same way to the merchants of Edenton, the products of the soil and woods, consisting chiefly of furs, tobacco, grain shingles and staves, (cotton was then unknown, for the first record we have of its production is taken from the records of the Custom House at Edenton in 1772, when two bags were exported from Edenton) this trade continued until the building of the Raleigh and Gaston and Seaboard and Roanoke Railroads, the completion of which brought financial ruin upon the mercantile interests of the town, caused by its trade in a large measure being diverted to Norfolk, Va., which became a more convenient and direct port of entry to the business interests of upper North Carolina. The records in the Court House at Edenton show an immense amount of business transacted by this firm (for a period so early in its history).

Mr. Blair died in 1772 and was buried in the Johnston cemetery at Hayes; Mrs. Blair survived her husband for a number of years. she sleeps beside her husband at Hayes.

The will of George Blair is recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Chowan county, at Edenton, and is recorded in Will Book A, page 51; it bears date July 4, 1771 and was probated April Term, 1772; in it he mentions "Wife Jean. sons William. marriage to Mrs. Sarah Long nee Haughton, (Joseph Manning's 1st wife was Sarah Pell, sister of William Pell and aunt of Rev. W. E. Pell of Raleigh, N. C.). Hon. John Manning, late of the University of North Carolina, was a nephew of Hon. Thos C Manning.

Thomas Courtland Manning received his early education at the Edenton Academy and was there prepared for College, he entered the University of North Carolina but remained only one year when he returned home and commenced the study of law. He soon became qualified to secure his license and began the practice of his profession in his native town; he did not wait long for clients; his maiden argument was made in a very important case and was a masterly effort for one so young in the profession, its clear presentation of the facts to the jury and well prepared and well arranged citations of the law and Supreme Court decisions to the Judge contributed in no small degree to a successful issue of the case. Many were the hearty congratulations of his associates of the bar and friends throughout the district. Shortly after he was appointed Clerk and Master of the Equity Court for the District of Edenton, which position he filled with rare ability up to the time he removed from Edenton. He was a member of the Faculty of the Edenton Academy during the years 1854 and 1855, having in charge the Greek and Latin department; the writer had the good fortune to be under his tutelage, and recalls with kindly and grateful memory the hours he spent under his tuition, his patient and anxious consideration for the welfare and development of those committed to his care can never be forgotten, there was no harshness in his discipline and not a single instance of punishment can be recalled during his entire term. his rules were cheerfully complied with, for his scholars loved, honored and almost revered him.

As we recall him he was a magnificent specimen of manhood, tall but well proportioned, of commanding appearance with a finely shaped head and well developed features, which with his fair complexion and neat, faultless dress, indicated a high degree of culture and refinement; his massive brow and penetrating eye presaged the success he achieved in later life. His dignity of carriage, polished manners and fine conversational powers, without any apparent effort, won the friendship of all with whom he came in contact, he was especially courteous to those in humble circumstances. the humblest citizen was never passed unnoticed. a smile of recognition, a kind expression, or better still an act of kindness, often sent a ray of sunshine into a darkened heart and home. He was a student whose close application manifested its fruit in his public utterances as well as in the social circle. As a public speaker he was deliberate in thought, chaste in language, clear and distinct in enunciation and graceful in delivery. His personal magnetism was wonderful.

He was devoted to his home and family, could always be found there when his business engagements for the day were concluded, and was as true as steel to his friends. Much to the regret of the people of his native town, he removed from Edenton to Alexandria, La., about the 1st of January, 1856, where he at once engaged in the practice of his profession; his rise in the favor and popularity of his new acquaintances was rapid and in 1861 he was elected by his constituents as a delegate to the State Convention of Louisiana; in 1863 was appointed a Brigadier General of the C. S. Army, from which position, in 1864, he was elevated to a seat on the Supreme Court Bench of the State; in 1877 he became Chief Justice. the highest professional honor the State could confer upon him; in 1880 was Elector-at-Large on the National Democratic ticket; elected to the U. S. Senate from Louisiana in 1881, and one of the Trustees of the Peabody Fund. On August 30, 1886, Judge Manning was appointed by President Cleveland, Minister to Mexico. he arrived at his post in the City of Mexico, October 19, 1886; was confirmed by the U. S. Senate February 14, 1887; the volume on "Foreign Relations" for 1887 contains the important correspondence conducted with him during his term of office. While on a leave of absence from his post he died in New York City, October 11, 1887 in the 63rd year of his age. The positions to which he was called by the people were filled with credit to himself and honor to the State. In his death the State of Louisiana lost one of her most valuable citizens and the country one of her brightest intellects. Requiescat in pace!

SOME SAVAGE—BARKER DATA.

The Genealogical MS. Company, of 152 West 46th St., New York, furnishes the following:

"The Ancient and Noble Family of the Savages of the Ards," a work compiled by "G. F. A." published we believe by Marcus Ward & Co., London and New York, under chapter devoted to the Virginia branch, contains the statement that Thomas Savage I. born 1592, arrived in Virginia from Chester, England, in 1607, married Hannah (or Ann) and had a son Capt. John Savage who was born in 1624 and was twice married. First to Ann Elkinton of England. The children of this marriage were: Susanna who married John Kendal and Grace who married George Corbin; Capt. John's second wife was Mary Robbins, and the children of this marriage were Thomas II., John, Elkinton, and Mary. Capt. John died 1678. Thomas Savage II. b. 1669 married Alicia Harmanson. The children of this marriage were Thos. III, George, Margaret, Mary, Zerebee and Sophia.

Suspecting that "Zerebee" was identical with Ferebee, the wife of Col. Francis Pugh and afterward of Mr. Thomas Barker, we proceeded to investigate.

Mr. James Francis Savage, of Lowell, Massachusetts, (Massachusetts branch) informed us that the initials "G. F. A." were those of Professor George Francis Armstrong, M. A., Queen's College, Cork, Ireland, and that Mr. Charles Chauncey Savage, of Philadelphia, was a descendant of the Virginia branch, whereupon we communicated with both these gentlemen and learned from the latter that the data in "The Savages of the Ards" relative to the Virginia branch was supplied by his mother from facts gathered by his father; that "Zerebee" appears in some papers as Ferebee, the name being written both with the "Z" and the "F" and that she married Francis Pugh in September 1722. Later a letter from Professor Savage-Armstrong, who since the death of the last male representative of the Savages of Glastry in the Ards, has assumed the double surname, reassures us of the correctness of our theory.

The lady's name was undoubtedly "Ferebee" read "Zerebee" through some indistinctness in the early MSS.

The Savages come of noble stock, boasting even royal blood, and it is to be regretted that Professor Savage-Armstrong has not attempted to establish the connection between the different branches of the family. If, however, all continue the search in the right direction whenever opportunities present themselves, we may yet succeed in establishing the line.

By reference to this Register under date of January 1901, at page 28, it will be seen that as late as 1782 there was evidently intercommunication among the connections in Virginia, North Carolina and County Down, Ireland.

It may be of interest to your readers to know that Professor-Savage-Armstrong has attained literary distinction and is known as "The Poet of Wicklow," his latest work being "Ballads of Down."

It will be seen from the above that the statement which appears in Mr. Newhall Barker's History of the Barker Family that Ferebee Savage was a native of Cornwall, England, is therefore conclusively disproved.

*We would like also in this connection to correct two other errors, one in the North Carolina Historical and Genealogical Register of October, 1900, at p. 515 to the effect that Thomas Barker was born in "Rhode Island"; and the other in an article on "The Historic Tea Party of Edenton in 1774", by Dr. Richard Dillard, published in the Magazine of American History, under date of August, 1892, stating that Mr. Barker was a "Scotch Lawyer".

The branch of the Barker family to which the husband of Ferebee Savage belonged came from England to Massachusetts, settling first in Pembroke, where the old Garrison House, the home of the first Barker, stood from 1640 (we have also seen it stated 1628) to 1894. The immediate family of the subject of these corrections moved to Hingham, Mass., the writer, a descendant, having had the pleasure of visiting both towns and owning some of the wood of the old house. Thomas Barker, afterward distinguished at the North Carolina Bar was undoubtedly born in Massachusetts, most likely in Hingham.

QUERY. PORTER-BROWN.—The remains of "Colonel" Reese Porter, "of North Carolina," lie buried at Pulaski, Tennessee, where the inscription on his tomb states that he was born February 26, 1744, and died February 13, 1821. "He owned a large body of land there, probably granted for military services, as he was proud of his scars won in the Revolution." * * * He was undoubtedly a Revolutionary soldier, and is thought to have gone to North Carolina from Pennsylvania, and to have been related to David Reese, a signer of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence." He married Jane Brown, who died August 30, 1806, a woman of haughty bearing, said to have been exceedingly proud of her family. Tradition says that on one occasion she stole through the enemy's camp in war time and liberated her husband, who was confined in a log cabin. Jane Brown was a daughter of William and Margaret Brown, Colonists, who lived in Londonderry, Ireland, at the time of their marriage, and emigrated from there to America, settling in North Carolina. Margaret Brown died in 1801, aged one hundred years."

Wanted, the military record of Reese Porter, land grants to him, the record of his marriage, evidence of his parentage or connection with David Reese. Was he identical with Reese Porter, of Chester County, Pennsylvania; son of William Porter and Mary Price, and mentioned in his father's will, which was proved at West Chester, Pennsylvania, August 3, 1749. This Reese Porter had an uncle Reese Price, and was a grand-son of Thomas and Ann Price.

Wanted also wills, land grants or any other data relating to William and Margaret Brown and their immediate descendants. It was their son Colonel James Brown, whose murder, and the kidnapping and massacre of his family, form a famous incident in the history of the earliest settlement of Tennessee.

Address, Porter Farquharson Cope,

QUERIES.

Col. Matthew Moore, of Albemarle Co., Va., settled in Stokes Co., N. C., at the foot of Sauratown Mountain, where he owned 1,000 acres of land including "Moore's Knob." He married 1757, (aged 19) his school-mate, Letitia, (aged 15), daughter of Samuel and Nancy (Redd) Dalton. Her father Samuel Dalton, died in 1805 aged 106, at the home of his grand-son Matthew Redd Moore, Jr., and his daughter Letitia, who died in 1838, all buried at the foot of Sauratown Mountain. Can any one tell me, if there are any tombstones at their graves, and if so, give the copy of their epitaphs?

Did "Col. Matthew Moore serve in the Revolution? or was he only one of the Militia? His father Wm. Moore, of Albemarle Co., Va., had two other sons, John and Edward Moore, a daughter who married a Martin, one a Bullock, one a Crockett, one Andrew McAlley, whose son John Moore McAlley was in Congress at the same time, his cousin Gabriel Moore was in the Senate, (from Alabama, 1829-35), he was son of Matthew and Letitia (Dalton) Moore. Frances Moore (another daughter of William Moore) married Captain John Henderson, and her great grand-son, Hon. John Wesley Gaines, of Nashville, Tenn., is now a member of Congress.

Was this Captain John Henderson a son of Bennett and Elizabeth (Lewis) Henderson? Captain John and Frances (Moore) Henderson had sons, William, Bennett, Matthew, etc., Henderson. Any information of these families will be gratefully received.

Also any information relative to the ancestry of William Ward, who went from Virginia to Kentucky and settled near Frankfort. From one authority we have it that Colonel Seth Ward, of Virginia, was the ancestor of the Kentucky Wards. George Ward, son of William Ward, once met a cousin of his from North Carolina at Covington, and seeing so many Ward wills, and noting the relationship of the family of William to a North Carolina Ward, we hope to gather some information to enable me to connect William Ward, (who had sons Junius, Matthew, George W. and Robert J., father of the celebrated Sallie Ward, of Louisville, Ky.) with his proper ancestors either in Virginia or North Carolina.

MRS. S. L. C.

Rev. Adam Boyd, Chaplain, in one of the Ten Regiments of the North Carolina Continental Line, "Rev. War," married in 1774 the widow of Dr. M. J. DeRossett, of Wilmington, N. C. There was no issue by this marriage. The date of his death has been published as occurring during the year 1800, but there are letters in existence written by him from Natchez, Miss., bearing date Dec. 30, 1802, which is positive proof that his death occurred after 1802. Our information was furnished by a descendant of the lady whom he married. (See page 82, History N. C. Society of the Cincinnati.) Who was the 1st Secretary of the Society? A writer in the News and Observer of Raleigh, N. C., in an issue of March 16th, claims that Curtis Ivey was. How is this? We had understood it was Rev. Adam Boyd.

A GROUP OF MY ANCESTRAL DAMES OF THE COLONIAL PERIOD.

An Historical Paper read before the N. C. Society of Colonial Dames, March 14th, 1901, by Mrs. Kate deRosset Meares, Pres't.

"In Domino Confido."

Members of the North Carolina Society of Colonial Dames.—Ladies and Gentlemen:

The National Council of the Society of Colonial Dames of America, through its Committee on Colonial Study of Historical Research, has made it obligatory upon each State Society to use every effort to gather from private records and unpublished documents such data of the lives, manners and customs of Colonial Ancestors as may enrich the historian's material or become the basis of interesting biography.

In accordance with this demand the Historical Circles of the North Carolina Dames will endeavor to furnish a series of papers, the initial number of which I am to offer you to-night. It consists of extracts from the unpublished "Annals of the DeRosset Family," put together primarily for the entertainment of the children of our own household. They make so simple a story that I could hardly have ventured to present it to you, but that it tells of some of the earliest settlers of the Cape Fear section and so may not be wholly devoid of interest.

The gifted authoress (a) of a popular historic novel of the day quotes John Rolfe as prophesying thus: "Those who come after us will not look too curiously into the lineage of those to whom a nation owes its birth." From our point of view this sounds as though intended as an ironical thrust at that much-storied pioneer of old Virginia, whose descendants are as the sands of the sea for multitude; but, if the story be true, our John was indeed a false prophet, or, at best, a monumental example of a prophet without honor in his own country and among his own kindred; for the sons and daughters of his own Virginia are in no wise loath to seek ancestral honors, and among them all, who are wont to claim the proudest pedigree, if not that noble host of descendants who sprang from his marriage with the royal Princess Pocahontas! John Alden of those same olden times, is known to fame by the gentle hint of his piquante Priscilla that he might "speak for himself"—it might have added another feather to John Rolfe's historic cap, if his lady Rebekah had whispered him a kindly warning not to speak for her posterity.

(a) "To Have and to Hold," by Mary Johnstone.

The age in which we live is one of restless energy and eager rush to satisfy the needs of daily life, or to grasp its passing pleasures, and scant time has been spared for studying the annals of the past—but they who do not think it worth their while sometimes to give a thought to those to whom they owe their very being, are like him who, Shakespeare says, had no music in his soul. "The motions of their spirit are dull as Night and their affection dark as Erebus."

But inspired perhaps by love of country, or pride in our material prosperity and greatness, we seem at last to have awakened to the importance of recalling our ancestors, and from all sides comes the question "Who were they who laid the beginnings of so great a Nation?" Genealogical research has shown that long indifference and neglect have shadowed our National honor in that so many of the heroes (and heroines) of those early days lie in unknown graves—their very names forgotten or obliterated from history.

A primary duty of the distinguished Society to which we have the honor to belong, is to share the noble work of preserving ancient landmarks and relics, and of rescuing from oblivion the memory of our ancestors who bore their part in the founding and upbuilding of this Union of Sovereign States—especially of those of our own good Commonwealth. We surely cannot be content simply to trace our own genealogical lines but should contribute to National fame such records as we possess of noteworthy men and women of those olden times of which our own title is a perpetual reminder. It was their heroic virtues that made the wilderness they found to blossom as the rose and to become a fair habitation for us who now enjoy its bountiful inheritance. Surely,

"Theirs were deeds which should not pass away
And names which must not wither."

So, as we enter upon a new Century of our Country's history, let us each bring our sprig of "rosemary for remembrance," and pausing turn a backward glance down the long vista of past years, if perchance we may catch a glimpse of some of those of the long ago whose names at least may be familiar to us through oft-told tales of later generations. We will be surprised to find a most inviting field of retrospect and research ever widening before us. One by one emerging from the dark mists of the past they come before our mental vision until at last we see a stately procession of dames and sires—yet how diverse in appearance, how varied in nationality for “God sifted many nations that He might bring good seed into this wilderness.” The flash lights of legend and tradition illumine them with vivid reality, and they appear to us almost as living pictures. Imagination is tempted to weave around them many a romance of love and devotion—of chivalry and heroism, but our spirit of loyalty and affection glorifies them with interest far exceeding that of fiction and impresses us with a feeling akin to reverent awe. Let us then portray them upon the walls of memory, that fixed there, they may abide with us in perpetual remembrance. * * * * *

I am to have the pleasure to-night of introducing to you a group of my own ancestral dames of the Colonial period—promising no dramatic narrative—nor thrilling tale of adventure—nor deeds of glory worthy of the historian’s pen. My records are few and I do not mean to wander into fields of romance. Theirs is a simple story of duty nobly done, and trials bravely borne, and would not be worth the telling but that it may encourage others of you whose family archives if searched into, may bring to light records of more general interest and greater historic value than mine.

But, though acknowledging my subject to be of purely personal interest, I utterly repudiate the charge of egotism, advanced as I am told by some hypercritic, who may not yet have learned the joy of “a worthy pride in worthy ancestry.” I make no apology for my Dames, feeling sure that the half score or more of our N. C. Society, who with me claim lineal descent from them will be interested, while as many more of you allied to them and us by ties of kindred scarce less dear, may find more pleasure than they anticipate in making the acquaintance of these ladies of the olden time.

My story opens in the year 1671—for I may not ante-date the Colonial period, and the scene is in S. Western France. By a striking coincidence of time another ancestor of many of us in a far distant locality, is beginning to lay the foundations of a new country. Sir John Yeamans, a colonist of Barbadoes, had a few years before been Knighted by Charles II. (b)—appointed Landgrave and Governor of the County of Clarendon ("near Cape Fear") and commissioned to explore and plant a colony therein. With his Barbadian followers in the year 1665 he sailed into the Cape Fear, obtained a royal grant of an immense tract of land and established a settlement a few miles below the present site of Wilmington. Tempted however by strong inducements, he shortly left this settlement and afterwards went to South Carolina where, this very year, under the direction of his friend and patron Lord Anthony Ashley Cooper—Earl of Shaftesbury,—he was engaged in laying out the City of Charleston. (c) Later he became first governor of the Province of S. C. and it is believed, he never returned to the Cape Fear. How strangely are the warp and woof of history woven in the mighty loom of Providence—as, witness ourselves, in whose veins flows mingled the blood of this English adventurer and of the Huguenot Lords of Languedoc—representatives of two great nations of the Old World. Can any one say why these our ancestors should not be as honorably numbered among the makers of our Nation as are the Pilgrim Fathers' of New England—or Penn's Quakers or the Cavaliers of Old Virginia and Maryland.

The ancestral home of the deRossets was in beautiful Provence—the land of the Melodious Langue d'Oc,—the home of the troubadour and minstrel: of chivalry and romance; whose vine-clad heights and fragrant rose-gardens were types of its valiant Knights and lovely women; that land so beautiful that Greece in her palmiest days could boast no Colony so fair; where Roman legions fought bravely for possession: whose soil was trodden by myriad hosts of Crusaders and enriched by the blood of Christian martyrdom and Huguenot persecution.

Let us go back some 230 years and picture to ourselves a scene in its little City of Uzes—(Cæsar's ancient Ucetia.) It was the afternoon of February 10th, 1671. The soft blue sky of that sweet land and the balmy breezes of the Mediterranean seemed never so enchanting to the favored ones who wended their way to participate in an occasion of unusual interest to the social world. It was the wedding of two prominent members of society—the one a high-born beautiful woman, the other a military officer of noble birth and rank. The "so-called Church of the Reformed" (so called in the document) was packed with the Elite of the City—many of whom were "followers of the New Religion." The land was at peace, for the Edict of Nantes still held good and as yet there was no rumble of that awful politico-religious upheaval which was shortly to shake the foundations of France and banish from their homes "50,000 families of the best blood of the Kingdom." The Huguenot Priest in sacred vestments and strong in the sanctity of a pure and much-tried faith, stood before the altar waiting the coming of the bridal party.

The youthful Seigneur Louis de Rosset, (or LeRoussay as he would call it) was an officer in the Regiment of Navarre in the service of Louis XIV. Descended from a long line of noble ancestry, "distinguished in the military annals of the kingdom from the days of the first Crusade," he was the son of "the noble Louis de Rosset, Docteur en Droits"—a man of letters, and of legal distinction. The bride was the Lady Gabrielle de Goudin, "grand-daughter and heiress of the late Antoine de Foutfiorde, Treasurer of the King's domain in the Leneschausee of Nimes." Fathers and grand-fathers had all passed away—but the ladies de Goudin and de Cassagues were present, the latter playing the role of fairy god mother, in endowing her favorite grand-child with abundant worldly possessions. Official authority had sanctioned the marriage quaintly declaring it to be "ordained for the glory and for the increase of the human race."

The ceremony performed, the wedding bells rung merrily, as the gay party accompanied the young couple to their home, doubtless to "dance the happy hours away" in mirth and jollity, for those people of Provence were ever a merry joyous race. The military attendants of the Captain added to the brilliancy of the scene, uniformed in all the pomp and bravery of war, and wearing many a well earned decoration and medal of honor—for France had no more valued and loyal servants than her brave Huguenot soldiers). The striking costumes of the Louis Quatoize period set off to advantage the stately grace and beauty of the ladies—their partners in the courtly dance. For four happy years the newly wedded pair kept honey moon in their baronial home of Perpignan, and then peace and happiness departed, for the clarion of war summoned the Captain again to his country's service in foreign lands and he was seldom at home any more, until at last the great catastrophe of the Revocation forced him into permanent exile. It is not for us now to follow his subsequent career—his flight to Holland and service with Wm. of Orange fighting in Ireland for the Protestant succession in Great Britain. The documents show that it was always honorable—that he was a naturalized citizen of England and died in London in 1725. Kindly influences enabled the Lady Gabrielle to dwell in peace at her own home for many years after his departure and tradition tells a pathetic story (well authenticated), of her sight being wept away through much sorrow and constant fear. In total blindness, waiting, with ever increasing hopelessness, the return of the long absent husband. Hope at length sunk into despair, and when after near 20 years of separation he was restored to her, her soul still refused to be comforted, until at length the assurance of his identity was made plain to her and from excess of joy she fainted in his arms. (The story would not be complete without this conventional ending!)

Gabrielle cannot truly be called a Colonial Dame of America for she did not live to know this land of her children's adoption. But she belongs to the Colonial period—being an exiled waif she had no country of her own—and as the wife of the first deRosset Huguenot refugee and the fore-mother of so many of us, I could not forbear relating all that is known of her personality—hoping that I have not presumed too far upon your interest in the brief but touching story of her strangely checkered life.

It was her "only son"—Armand John deRosset I. who was the Huguenot immigrant to Carolina and founder of the American branch of the family. Educated first in "famous schools of England and Belgium," he finally entered the celebrated University of Basel, Switzerland, where in 1720 he was graduated with honor, and the degree of Doctor of Medicine. He married in Switzerland a Lady of the noble House of Uعتia," whose name is lost to us by the destruction of some of the family records—but we have reason to think it was Madeleine. As the Dis diploma—still extant—tells us that he was also "of the same noble house of Uعتia," they must have been kinsfolk and she, like himself, was probably a refugee from persecution. At some period of peace, they returned temporarily to France and two children Gabrielle II and Louis Henry were born to them in Montpellier before they finally bade adieu to their native land and went to England to join his old military father. While in London—in 1726—their third child was born—our ancestor Moses John deRosset I. It was probably in 1735 when the boy was about nine years old, that the Doctor, induced by circumstances unknown to us, set sail with his wife and their three children for these distant shores. Why did not tradition, or records, hand down to us the name of the ship on which that long and perilous voyage was made, and give us details of the trials they must have suffered? Such records do exist—notably a letter of a French Huguenot lady of S. C.—Judith Marigault. (d) That stands to me as an example of what those dear kinsfolk of ours may have endured. She tells of a ten weeks voyage on a wretched little vessel—with untold horrors of pestilence on board, and death at sea—of mutiny and famine—of storm and ship-wreck and of dire poverty and hard labor after reaching port. It makes one shudder to think of all this and contrast it with the luxurious appointments, and safety of the modern Ocean-liner. Landing we know not where our little family at length settled in the hamlet of New Liverpool—an insignificant village of perhaps 50 or 60 families—but incorporated in 1739 by Gov. Johnston under the name of Wilmington in complement to his friend and patron Spencer Compton—Earl of Wilmington.

The province of the Carolinas was fortunate—almost unique—in the character of its early settlers. Unlike those of other Colonial States, our records tell of no bands of needy adventurers—no outcasts of Society—no cargoes of indentured convicts—nor ship loads of women in search of husbands. The immigrants were mostly ladies and gentlemen of education and social rank; many of these from the West Indian Colonies of Great Britain—people of means, seeking still better fortunes in the American El Dorado—with great grants of land and retinues of slaves and retainers, building substantial homes and making them famous far and near for good living and generous hospitality. Here too on the Cape Fear was the palace of the Royal Governors—around whose mimic court gathered all that was best of Provincial Society.

Under such unusual advantages of environment our Rose of Provence was transplanted to the sunny shores of Carolina and Madeleine deRosset became one of the first Colonial Dames of the Cape Fear section. The white plume of Navarre under which our gallant forefathers had fought for God and the right, and the lilies of France won for their shield by loyalty and valor, would henceforth be but sacred memories, but the trustful legend of their escutcheon—"In Domino Confido," none could take away—it would be theirs and their childrens children's for guidance and strength in days of trial yet to come.

Only ten years had elapsed since the grand-sons of Sir John Yeamans (the Moore brothers) had come to the Cape Fear to reclaim the great possessions abandoned by their grand-father near 50 years before. They found the country in 1723 utterly without a white inhabitant. The population increased slowly in the towns. Brunswick (e) was the chief settlement and was surrounded by the extensive estates of wealthy planters.

Dr. deRosset determined on coming farther up the river and fixed his residence in Wilmington on a lot on Second street between Market and Princess, where the old McRee house now stands and where Wm. Hooper, the signer of the Declaration of Independence afterwards lived. (f) How lonely and desolate, how crude and rough and comfortless must all have seemed to the daintily nurtured daughter of la belle France. Could we wonder if she had succumbed to the trials of her situation and pined to homesick longing for the flesh pots of Old World civilization? But the brave Huguenot spirit had learned to endure hardship and to rise to the duties of life and tradition represents her to us as always the refined and cultivated lady—the gentle and courteous friend—the kind and benevolent neighbor—the beloved and admired of all who knew her. She was also of exceeding beauty—her portrait was among the relics saved from the wreck of the Old French home, and was preserved for more than a century. I have been told by some who had seen it, that her beautiful features were reproduced in those of her lovely great grand-daughter Polly Toomer. (It may be that some of her daughters now with us, may claim their aristocratic type of beauty as part of the inheritance of this fair French ancestress!)

The Doctor's profession was a busy one. A large laborious country practice took him much from home—while his wife was occupied with the varied household cares of domestic life in a new and undeveloped country, striving always for the welfare and happiness of those she loved so well.

She lived to see her husband an honored useful citizen of the infant town—influential in its municipal councils—sitting in its courts as Judge of the quorum—successful in his noble healing art; and respected and esteemed by the whole community.

The eminent position of her eldest son Louis must also have rejoiced her heart. Elected at an early age to the Provincial Assembly he was soon elevated to the King's Council and "continued in that office for 25 years until the end of the Royal Government."

The Colonial Records of N. C. bear ample testimony to the value of his services, in his untiring efforts to promote the welfare and best interest of Church as well as State—(for during their English sojourn the family had become devoted adherents of the Established Church.) Feeling conscientiously bound by his repeated oaths of office, Mr. deDosset in the Revolution remained loyal to the Crown, was "banished from the Province on pain of death if he returned" and died an exile in London in 1786.

His wife was Maragaret Walker (g). She died a year before him, in the grief and loneliness of enforced and prolonged separation. They left no children.

The only daughter of Dr. Annand John and Madeleine deRosset Gabrielle H. married John DuBois and was also a Colonial Dame of N. Carolina—as was her daughter Magdalene (DuBois) Mrs.

(g) James and Margaret Walker were children of Robert and Ann Montgomery Walker—emigrated from Ireland in 1738. They were kinsmen perhaps, if not descendants of the "Fighting Bishop of Londonderry."

James Walker—but I leave it to their descendants of our Society to tell their story—and there is much interesting material concerning them waiting to engage the interest of some of their numerous daughters.

My great grand-father Moses John deRosset adopted the profession of his father—and was the second of five successive generations of Doctors deRosset who for 175 years adorned the annals of the profession in North Carolina.

All too soon for the happiness of the family the sweet Huguenot mother fell asleep in 1746 and was laid to rest beneath the apple trees in her own home garden. There after many days the beloved husband of her youth was laid beside her and there they still rest in peace, long since mouldered into dust; but ever waiting for the Day of Resurrection!

Dr. Armand was however to have another and far different experience of conjugal felicity before he followed her to the land of Rest. About five years after her death he raised to the dignity of Colonial Dame a second Mrs. deRosset—choosing for that honor Elizabeth Catharine Bridgen—an Englishwoman of masterful mind and character—a striking contrast to the gentle lady of Ucetia, her predecessor; yet a lady by birth, of fine literary attainments, and the intimate friend and neighbor of Mrs. John Burgwin—herself a native of Bristol, England. The Dr. survived this union but a few years and she then retired to her country seat “The Chinese Temple” adjoining the Hermitage, where during the Revolution she enjoyed many a “dish” of the forbidden tea, with which she seemed to have been bountifully supplied by “special permission of the authorities.” She managed her handsome estate with ability and profit and some clever extant letters tell of her doing the same for the Hermitage in Mr. Burgwin’s absence. She died before the war was over at her summer home at Masonboro Sound in 1778, leaving no children to perpetuate her virtues, or to be interested in her memoirs so we will dwell no longer on her.

With the garrulity of age I fear I have already spun out my story to the limit of your patience, but bear with me a little longer that I may introduce the last of my Dames (h) the first of English parentage.

About the middle of the 18th century there came to Wilmington from the Island of Jamaica “an eminent lawyer” Marmaduke Jones by name. His wife had been “the widow of a Scotch gentleman of note in the plantations”—a Mr. Ivy—and with her two daughters Mary and Ann Ivy, constituted the family. These young ladies were heiresses in their own right, which, added to the attractions of well-educated and accomplished gentlemen, could not fail to draw many admirers and suitors for their favor. Ann, the younger, married James Moore, son of the Maurice Moore who founded Brunswick, and afterwards a distinguished officer in the Continental line; and Mary the elder sister in 1759 became the wife of Dr. Moses John deRosset. He was then about 33 years of age—his early youth and manhood had been so full of adventure that had it been his instead of her story I was to tell, I might have given you a thrilling episode. I think he may have won his bride by “oft told tales of moving accidents by field and flood, of being captured by the insolent foe and sold to slavery” (for all this was indeed true) and moving her first to pity—love, so near akin, grew on apace.

(h) Daughter of an Alderman of London, and sister of Edward Bridgen, whose commercial house carried on extensive trade with Carolina.

He had been an officer in Col. Innes Regt. sent in 1754 by N. C. to aid her sister—colony—Virginia to repel the Indian and French invasions. (These were the first troops raised by any Colony for service outside of its own borders).

The Dr. built for his bride a brick house on the corner of two principal streets—Market and Second—adjoining his father’s residence. The “Unlucky Corner,” as it now appears makes it difficult for us to believe that it was in its day a handsome dwelling—perhaps the finest in the town—but, the fact that after 150 years it has outlived all others of its time, tells at least of honest material and workmanship. Alas! that all our old landmarks should fall into decay!

The oppressive measures of the British government were now beginning to stir the resentful opposition of the Colonies. Public meetings were held for devising means of relief and evading the unjust imposition of taxes. Committees of Safety were organized by the patriot party. Strong men were placed in positions of honor and trust and it was a striking evidence of the esteem and confidence of his fellow citizens, that Dr. deRosset, a peaceable practitioner of a quiet profession, should at such a critical time be elected to the office of Mayor of the town.

The story of resistance to the stamp act at the port of Brunswick by the people of the lower Cape Fear, is well known to us—though the national historian has been too apt to under-rate or ignore it. Unlike the far famed Boston tea party, it was no midnight raid of a few men in disguise to destroy a cargo of tea—but eight years before that much vaunted epoch of United States history our men of N. C. rose in their might to assert their rights and liberties as British subjects—in broad daylight, in military array, under the King’s own flag they defied the power of Great Britain—forced the Stamp Master to resign his office and bearding the representative of the British lion in his palatial den, successfully resisted the landing of the hated stamps from the King's own ships of war.

Wilmington did her part nobly—sent a contingent of troops—prohibited the transportation of supplies needed for the ships—and after all was over addressed a letter to Gov. Tryon protesting against any lack of loyalty to the Royal government, but asserting their right to resist oppression and closing with a sentence which McRee, our local historian says, is worthy of Hampden or Cobham. It runs thus, "Moderation ceases to be a virtue when the liberty of the British subject is in danger."

That letter was indited by Mayor deRosset as Chairman of the Council (i) and his descendants should remember it with pride—for it has North Carolina's first true ring of Liberty which culminated ten years later in the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, May 20th, 1775.

Our lady mayoress must have felt her heart beat proudly at her husband's honorable patriotic fulfilment of the responsibilities of his position. May we not picture her as one of that throng of men, women and children who met the boat of the stamp-ship Diligence as it approached the town mounted on a cart, and in jubilant procession paraded the trophy of victory through the streets. And then at night when that memorable day closed with a general illumination of the town we may be sure the Mayor's house was conspicuously ablaze, and the young wife felt happy and proud in the consciousness that her husband was indeed a hero!

But their married life, beginning so auspiciously was brief—lasting only 8 years. On Christmas day 1767 Dr. deRosset was cut down in the prime of life and was buried two days later on his 41st birthday. The only known male deRosset down to the present generation who did not live to a ripe old age. Only two children blessed their union. My grand-father Dr. Armand John deRosset II. who was only six weeks old when he was left fatherless, and his sister Magdalen Mary—five years his senior—who married Mr. Henry Toomer, and has several representatives in our Society who might well employ their clever pens in recording for our imitation the "unparalleled virtues" for which the family papers say she was distinguished.

Thus early inured to sorrow Mary Ivy henceforth devoted herself to the rearing and education of her children—for this she was eminently fitted by her early opportunities for intellectual culture. Always a student of such literature as the times afforded, her mind was open to grasp the problems of science as well as to enjoy lighter literature. She was from the first interested in her husband's professional pursuits and under his instructions became so expert that he could, in his absence, safely entrust his patients to her care, and also the use of the surgical instruments. So when his death left the town ill-supplied with competent physicians she was ever ready to respond to calls—especially of the sick poor—taking constantly not only the physician's work but that of trained nurse—little dreaming that her labor of love and charity would develop into one of the noblest professions of the women of the next century. In climatic fevers she was very successful and also in inoculation for small-pox—vaccination being yet unknown. It was doubtless from her lancet that her son received the virus that protected him from the dreaded scourge he so often had to deal with in his long life. It was also to his Mother's surgical skill that he owed the setting and cure of a broken collar bone in his boyhood.

The clouds of war grew more and more threatening and the end of the Colonial period drew near. Lonely and unprotected was the little family and Mrs. deRosset felt that for her children's sake it would be well for her to accept an offer of marriage from Mr. Adam Boyd. He was then the editor of the Cape Fear Mercury—the patriot organ—and an accomplished scholar and gentleman. Mr. Boyd took a paternal interest in the children and gave valuable assistance in their education until he was called into military service. After the war he was active in the organization of the North Carolina Society of the Cincinnati—was its secretary, and after his ordination by Bishop Seabury to the Episcopal ministry, was made its Brigade Chaplain. Mrs. deRosset's pre-nuptial contract is on file in the New Hanover Court House, and according to the custom of the time, gives an inventory of her various possessions—articles of household furniture, silver-ware, servants, &c.

Some of us may from our own experience in a measure realize the anxiety and distress of the Mother and her children during the long years of the Revolutionary war. At times they were forced to the refuge of her sister (Mrs. Gen. Moore's) home on the North-East. Once Mrs. Moore's house was bombarded by a British sloop of war, under suspicion of being a harbor for disaffected patriots.

Together they witnessed the cruel treatment of Cornelius Harnett the popular idol of the Cape Fear, when taken from a sick bed in Onslow County by Craig's marauders he fell from exhaustion on the march, and was thrown across a horse's back "like a sack of meal" and thus brought into Wilmington where he died in prison—a lamented victim of an unholy war. Such scenes had an enduring influence upon the lad Armand, filling his soul with the spirit of pure patriotism—so that we are hardly surprised to find him when only 13 years old shouldering his musket and joining the patriot forces, participating in a gallant fight at the Oaks. Lossing in his Field Book of the American Revolution says that "the venerable Doctor" seventy years later related to him the interesting incident adding "it is worthy of attention and the local historian should not fail to put it upon record!"

When at last victory was won and peace brooded over "the land of the free and the home of the brave" though families were broken and fortunes ruined all hearts rejoiced at the birth of the "Young Republic." Thenceforth Mrs. Boyd's home was with her daughter, Mrs. Toomer—dutifully attended by the loving care of that devoted child her last years were passed in peace, though sorely tried by total blindness. (Wonderful it is that sorrow and trouble so often put out the light of those windows of the soul!) She lived to see her beloved son Armand happily married and launched on his remarkable professional career of seventy years of active practice, and in 1798 soon after his first-born son came to perpetuate her husband's name, she passed in the odor of sanctity into the rest that remaineth for the people of God. To his dying day my grand-father could not speak of his "venerated mother," as he always called her, but with subdued and reverent tone as of one mourning the recent departure of the best beloved.

As I forewarned you these ancestors of mine left no glorious deed to be recorded on the pages of the Nation's history, but none the less they were among the strong foundation stones of integrity and uprightness of social law and order, on which the great fabric of Christian civilization rests and they "Were not of those who stoop and lie in wait

For place, or fortune, or for worldly state
Their powers shed round them in the daily strife
And mild concerns of ordinary life"
The gracious influence of blameless lives
And kindly hearts, and duty nobly done!

ABSTRACT OF BERTIE COUNTY WILLS.

(Original in Court House at Windsor, N. C.)

Alexander, John, April 4, 1795. August Term, 1799.

"Da Praecepta, Familiae, Tuae, nam Tu Crive Moriturusus."

"For as much as the last scene of life seems hastening on, and the curtain ready to fall," I think it prudent, before I make my final exit off the stage, whereon I have some time acted, to dispose of the few trifles fortune has bestowed me, in manner following to-wit:

Imprimis. I Give and bequeath to my two Daughters, Martha and Rachel, all and every part of my property whatever, to be equally divided between them, and to their lawful heirs forever. On the demise of either, before impowered to make a will, the surviving sister inherits the whole and should both decease, before the laws capacitate to will, then, my remaining property to be wholly converted to Educating the poor children within the counties of Hertford and Bertie; under such regulations as my Executors shall think fit. My body I bequeath to the earth, whence it originated, My Soul Immortal and unalloyed to dust, I commend to the Father of Mercies.

The manly, masculine Voice of Orthodoxy, is no longer heard in our land. Far, therefore, from my Grave be the senseless Rant of Whining Fanaticism; her hated and successful rival—Cant and Grimace Dishonour the dead, as well as Disgrace the living. Let the monitor within, who never Deceives, alone pronounce my Funeral Oration; while some Friendly hand Deposits my poor remains Close by the ashes of my beloved Daughter Elizabeth, with whom I trust to share a happy Eternity.

And of this my last Will and Testament, I constitute and appoint Capt'n George West, George Outlaw, Esq., and Mr. Edward Outlaw, my Executors, On whose Probity, Honor and Disinterested Friendship, I entirely rely for the faithful Discharge of the trust I repose in them, Beseeching them, as they would approve themselves to him who is the Father of the Fatherless, to use all possible means of Inspiring my children with a love of Virtue and an abhorrence of Vice, Restraining them from all plans and persons Dangerous to their Virtue or Innocency—Giving them an Education to their rank in life suitable and becoming. Let their books and their needles be their principal companions and Employ. I could wish the laws enable me to do more for my wretched and unfortunate slaves than that of recommending them to lenity and mild treatment.

Be to their faults a little blind;

Be to their virtues ever kind.

JOHN ALEXANDER.

AFFIDAVIT OF DANIEL AUSTIN.

Daniel Austin being sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposeth and saith that on Monday morning last William Brimage and a Person who afterwards called himself Campbell, and said he was a Lieutenant of a man of War, came to the House of this deponent Father's when the Lieutenant asked this deponent to go out and look for one John Smith, which he did, and could not find him. Mr. William Brimage then asked this Deponent if he would be hired to carry him to Roanoke Island, which he told him he would, he then asked his Father how much it was worth to go to Roanoke Island, who answered Ten Dollars. William Brimage said that sum was too much, and asked this deponent what he would take who answered Eight dollars. John Smith at this time was come from Francis Rawlinson's and said he had hired a Boat there, but if this deponent's Boat was ready he should have a chance and agreed to give him Eight Dollars, which was the sum he was to give for the one he had engaged, this deponent then went to his Brother to get him to go with him and brought the Boat to his Father's Landing. After Breakfast they set off with the said Boat and William Brimage, John Smith & the Lieutenant in her, on their Passage Campbell asked them if they would go down to New Inlet, he wanted to see it, this Deponent and his Brother was much against going down, the Lieutenant then called up Mr. William Brimage who whispered with him, but what they said this deponent does not know, the said William Brimage & the Lieutenant then told this deponent and his Brother that if they would carry them to New Inlet they would pay them to their asking. John Smith wanted to keep on to Roanoke Island, the place agreed for, the Lieutenant and William Brimage insisted to go to New Inlet, they then put the Boat about and went down New Inlet and landed on the Beach, they hauled the Boat up out of the way of the Tide. Mr. Brimage asked if any House was near. This Deponent told there was none nigher than Body's Island. He then asked the Lieutenant if he would take a walk and look at the Bar, he then turned about and took out a Handkerchief with two Pistols in it, and walked after this deponent, who turned and met him and asked him if he intended to hurt him. He untied his Handkerchief and took out his Pistols and told this deponent he must have his Boat for he must make his Escape. This deponent then told his Brother they were Prisoners and begged they might not be hurt. William Brimage and John Smith replied they should not be hurt, Mr. Brimage declaring he would Perish on the Beach before they should be hurt. John Smith begged that in case the Boat was taken, if this deponent would let him go home with him which he agreed to, the Lieutenant then said they must go to an Island to Ballast the Boat. They went to an Island, and this deponent then asked the Lieutenant if he would put him & his Brother across on the Beach, as they might be able to get hom, which he refused, and said he must keep them that night. William Brimage, John Smith and the Lieutenant persuaded this deponent and his Brother to carry them to Currituck & told them they should have the Boat again to carry them back and they would give them all the Money they had. They agreed to go and set off.

Mr. William Brimage and John Smith told this deponent that they had done no harm, but being suspected Tories, had come away, as they would not take the oath. A squall rising in the West, this deponent asked him if they would go on shore. Accordingly they went on shore on Dolbey's Point, hauled up the Boat and took a Walk on the beach. Mr. Brimage was afraid to Walk the beach, being apprehensive they might be seen and found out, they then went back to the boat, pushed off and set sail and went a small distance. The Wheather looked very Dismal and they went on shore again. They went a small distance from the Boat and sat down. Setting there some time this deponent whispered his Brother to take the Boat and make his escape and that this deponent would run away, which accordingly they did, and further this deponent says not.

AFFIDAVIT OF CORNELIUS AUSTIN.

Cornelius Austin being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposeth & saith, that this deponent was in a Boat with his Brother Daniel Austin, and they took in Mr. William Brimage and a Person that said he was a Lieutenant of a Man of War, who called himself Campbell, & one John Smith of Bertie County; that they went peaceably and quietly to New Inlet. There the Lieutenant insisted on going to take a view of the Inlet, which this deponent would not agree to, but the Lieutenant insisted upon to go and said he both must and will see New Inlet; this deponent then told him he would go where he pleased with his own Boat. Mr. William Brimage was at that time laying down in the Boat and this deponent thinks he was asleep. The Lieutenant waked him up and they whispered together, but what they said this deponent does not know. Then they, the said Lieutenant & Mr. Brimage, insisted to go down to New Inlet. Accordingly they put the Boat about and went to the Inlet, and Landed on the northern side of the Point and went on shore. The first thing this deponent saw after he got on shore was the Lieutenant with a pair of Pistols in his hands, and his Brother begging for God's sake not to take his life; that said John Smith and this deponent had some talk, who told this deponent that he would lose his right arm before he would see him hurt or wronged, nor his Boat taken from him. Then this deponent said to the said Smith, Will you stand by me if I attempt to take the Lieutenant. Immediately this deponent went to take him and fetched a step or two towards the Lieutenant. The said Smith came after him and begged this depo-nent would not do any thing of that kind, as the said Smith said the Lieutenant was a blooded minded Fellow and was afraid he would kill some of them. Upon that he desisted; that he & his Brother was taken Prisoners at the place by the Lieutenant and obliged to agree to carry them to Currituck Inlet and Land them there on the Beach that they might make their escape along the Cape, as this deponent understood to be the Capes of Virginia, then they proceeded to an Island of Marsh to Ballast the Boat and to wait until a squall which was then rising was over. In the meantime Mr. William Brimage and John Smith undertook to see the Boat safe, returned to this deponent & his Brother, they then proceeded on their way to Currituck until they came up with Roanoke Island. Then it grew dark & squally. They were obliged to put ashore at Dolbey's Point and took a walk a small distance on the Beach. William Brimage then was afraid they should be discovered by some Person and proposed to go back to the Boat, which they did accordingly. They put off and went a little further, & went on shore again, and hauled the Boat a small distance on the sand and took shelter under a tree and was there some time, his Brother whispered to him to take the Boat and run off with her, which he did, and further this deponent says that it was much against the will of the said John Smith to go to New Inlet. He wanted to proceed to Roanoke Island where they were first bound, & further this deponent says not.

Memorandum: That on this Twentieth day of July 1779, James Knott, of the County of Bertie and State of North Carolina, and Zedekiah Stone, Esq., of the County and State aforesaid, personally come before me, William Benson, one of the Justices for said County, and acknowledged themselves to be indebted to his Excellency, Richard Caswell, Esq., Governor of the State aforesaid, for the time being or to his successors, in the sum of One Thousand pounds to be levied of their good & Chattels, Lands & Tenements, respectively, to the use of him, the said Governor, or his Successor, upon condition, That if the said James Knott shall personally appear at the next Superior Court to be held at Edenton for the District of Edenton to do and receive what shall be then and there enjoined by the said Court and that he do not depart without leave of the said Court, and that in the meantime to be of the good behavior. Then this Recognizance to be void or else to remain in force.

Acknowledged before me. JAMES KNOTT, [Seal.]

James Knott, Als.,

The State of North Carolina: And the said James Knott, by Jasper Charlton, his attorney, for Plea to the Scire Facias issued against him by James Iredell, Esq., Attorney General for the State and in Discharge of the Recognizance entered into by him at Edenton November Superior Court, 1779, for his appearance at the next ensuing Court in May, 1780, saith that after the November Court, 1779, he was drafted into the service and never came home till during the sitting of May Court, when he was so sick, fatigued and his Feet so much bruised as not to be able to walk.

That he was in Charles Town during a good Time of the siege, required the approbation of his Officers and behaved in such a manner as to acquit him of the least Degree of Suspicion of being an enemy to his country or to Toryism. That the said James Knott would have attended at November Court, 1780, but that his Attorney above named, who was likewise his bail, and lay at the Point of Death himself, informed him that from the daily Danger apprehended at Edenton of the enemy he expected no Court would be held, or if any merely to continue all Business depending therein, and that in May Court, 1781, he was preparing and would have attended, but no Court was then held, and that he is now attending at this Court, November 1781, to answer to any Matter or offence the State may charge him with. That since his first being drafted he has been a second time drafted and served under General Gregory until discharged without Blame or Censure.

Jasper Charlton: And the before named Jasper bail for the within named James Knott's appearance at Edenton May Superior Court, 1780, in Pleading in Discharge of his Recognizance entered into in November, 1779, alledgeth and saith that what is contained in the annexed Plea of the said James Knott is in all Respects just and true, and further the said Jasper saith that in May Court, 1780, he would have pleaded the incapacity of the said James Knott's attendance, but he knew * * * thereof until his Return to his own House. But that during * * * a Court had been formed in November, 1780, to which the said James Knott and Jasper Charlton's Scire Facias were returnable, he was intending to attend, and actually had set off several miles thither at the Peril of his Life and against the Advice of all his Friends partly to exonerate the James and himself as his Bail of the Penalty of their several Recognizances, but found when he got within a few miles of Edenton the said Court had broke up and that at the Time prescribed by Law for holding the Superior Court in May, 1781, he attended and the said James would also have attended to have discharged themselves of their Recognizances aforesaid, but no Court was held on account of the Confusion and Danger there prevailing in the State and the said Jasper is now in Court for the above purpose as to himself."

GOVERNOR JOSIAH MARTIN'S PROCLAMATION.

North Carolina: By His Excellency Josiah Martin, Esq., His Majesties Capt. General, Governour, and Commander-in-Chief in and over the said Province.

A PROCLAMATION.

"Whereas, a most daring, horrid and unnatural Rebellion has been excited in this Province, against his Majesty and his Government by base and insidious artifices of certain traterous, wicked and designing Men, and the same is now openly avowed and declared and threatens the total subversion of the Laws and Constitution of the said Province and the Liberties and Privileges of his Majesties subjects, inhabitants thereof, I have thought fit to issue this Proclamation hereby to signify to all his Majesties liege subjects, inhabitants thereof that I found it necessary for the safety and preservation of their rights, Civil and Religious, and for the Maintenance of his Majesties Government, against the said desperate and unnatural Rebellion to erect his Majesties Royal Standard and to Collect and unite the force of his Majesties faithful people, under the same for the purposes of resisting and subduing, with the assistance of the Almighty, the said impious and unnatural Rebellion, and to restore the just rights and authority of his Majesties power and Government & the Liberties of his people. And I do hereby exort and require and Command in the King's name all his Majesties faithful subjects on their duty, and Allegiance forthwith to repair to the Royal Standard, hereby promising and assuring every aid, support and encouragement, to all such as shall come forth to vindicate & support the violated Laws and Constitution of their Country, at the same time pronouncing all such as do not join the Royal Cause Rebels & Traitors, their Lives & properties to be forfeited, and such as join shall be forgiven all past offences, not doubting but that every man who knows the value of Freedom and the blessings of a British subject, will join his heart and hand to restore to his Country that most Glorious, True and happy Constitution which the most desperate and abandoned Traitors only can wish to disturb, or alter, or in a time of danger for the present, forbear to hazard everything that is dear to support it.

"God save the King."

JO. MARTIN.

Bah! His Excellency Josiah Martin, &c., &c.

To Allen McDonald, Donnel McDonnel, Alexander McLeod, Daniel McLeod, Alexander McClean, Allen Stewart, William Campbell, Alex. McDonnold and Neil McArthur, Esquires, of the County of

Cumberland and Anson; John Pyle, Esquire, of the County of Chatham; William Field, James Hunter, Robert Fields, Jeremias Fields and Jarymore York, Esqurs., of the County of Guilford; Michael Holt and James Monro, Esquires, of the County of Orange; Paul Barringer, Esqr., of the County of Mecklenburg; William Spurgian, William Bryan, Samuel Bryan and Mathias Sappingfield, Esquires, of the County of Rowan; Gideon Wright and James Glyn, Esq., of the County of Surry; and Philemon Hawkins, Senior, and Philemon Hawkins, Junior, Esquires, of the County of Bute:

I, reposing especial trust & Confidence in your Loyalty, Courage, Prudence and fidelity, do by virtue of the Powers & Authorities in me vested by his Majesty, hereby commissionate, authorize & empower you whose names are above written and each and every of you to erect the King's Standard and to raise, levy & array in arms all his Majesty's loyal & faithful subjects within your respective Counties or in any part or parts of this Province, who are willing and ready to repair to the royal Banner for the support of the Laws and Constitution thereof against the most horrid and unnatural Rebellion that has been excited therein by traitorous, wicked & designing Men & now threatens the subversion of his Majesty's Government & the utter destruction of the Right & Liberties of his Majesty's People. & I hereby give & grant to you power & authority to form the forces you shall so raise into Companies of fifty men each, & to appoint one Captain, one Lieutenant & an Ensign to every Company so formed, whose appointment as well as this Commission shall be good, valid and effectual during my Pleasure, and I do hereby give to each and every of you full power & authority to seize and take whatsoever may be necessary of Arms, Ammunition, Provisions, Horses and Carriages for the subsistence & accommodation of his Majesty's faithful subjects, whom you shall assemble in Arms for the purpose aforesaid. You giving Receipts for the same or keeping account thereof, that satisfaction may be made to the Owner or Owners, if they are not engaged in rebellion.

And I do hereby give to each and every of you full power and authority to resist and oppose all Rebels and Traitors against his Majesty & his Government, by force & arms & to apprehend & seize & detain them, their accomplices & abettors & you are hereby required immediately & with all possible secrecy to concert a plan of general Rendezvous for your forces, thence to march in a body by such Route as you shall Judge proper to Brunswick, so ordering your movements that you may reach that Town on the fifteenth day of February next ensuing, making prisoners in your way all such persons as you know to be principals or active in Rebellion, taking all possible care that Women & Children are unmolested, that no cruelty whatever be committed to sully the Honor & Arms of Britons & freemen employed in the glorious & Righteous Cause of rescuing & delivering their Country from the usurpation of Rebellion & that no violence be done against the laws of Humanity, but Resistance shall be necessary to the end that the people who have been deluded into Rebellion may be sensible it is his Majesty's most gracious and royal Intention & my Earnest desire to reclaim them to a proper sense of their duty & obedience to lawful Government without involving the Country in the horrors of war if by timely & dutiful submission they make such extremities avoidable.

And whereas there may be many of his Majesty's faithful subjects in this Province whose merits and influence may qualify them to take part in the execution of this Commission whom I have omitted for want of knowledge of them & their Principals & their good Dispositions, I do hereby give full Power & Authority to you who are herein named to Join with you in the Execution of the Powers granted to you, by this commission every such Person or Persons as you shall deem worthy of such high Trust and Confidence hereby declaring that each & every such Person or Persons as you shall think fit to join with you in the Execution of these Presents shall have equal power & authority as if they were herein particularly named.

In pursuance of the Trust reposed in you.

Given under my Hand & Seal at Arms on Board his Majesty's Sloop Scorpion, in Cape Fear River, this Tenth day of January, 1776, & in the fifteenth year of his Majesty's Reign.

Vera Copia.

Up to 1835 these are all the marriage bonds we have been thus far able to find in the court house at Windsor, but hope on our next visit, to be able to secure others, as we propose to make a thorough search and secure an abstract of all we can find. There are a very large and unusual number missing.—EDITOR.

GEN. GEORGE WASHINGTON TO GOV. ALEX. MARTIN.

HEAD QUARTERS, NEWBURG, June 14th 1783.

SIR:— The great object for which I had the honor to hold an appointment in the service of my Country being accomplished, I am now preparing to resign it into the hands of Congress, and to return to that domestic retirement which it is well known I left with the greatest reluctance, a retirement for which I have never ceased to sigh through a long and painful absence, and in which (remote from the noise and trouble of the World), I meditate to pass the remainder of my life in a state of undisturbed repose. But before I carry this resolution into effect, I think it a duty incumbent on me to make this, my last Official Communication, to congratulate you on the glorious events which Heaven has been pleased to produce in our favor, to offer some sentiments respecting some important subjects which appear to me to be intimately connected with the tranquility of the United States, to take my leave of your Excellency as a public Character, and to give my final blessing to that Country in whose service I have spent the prime of my life, for whose sake I have consumed so many anxious days and watchful nights, and whose happiness being extremely dear to me, will always constitute no inconsiderable part of my own.

Impressed with the liveliest sensibility on this pleasing occasion, I will claim the indulgence of dilating the more copiously on the subjects of our mutual felicitation. When we consider the magnitude of the prize we contended for, the doubtful nature of the contest, and favorable manner in which it has terminated, we shall find the greatest pleasure and reason for gratitude and rejoicing. This is a theme that will afford delight to every benevolent and liberal mind, whether the event in contemplation be considered as the source of present enjoyment or the parents of future happiness; and we shall have equal occasion to felicitate ourselves on the lot which Providence has assigned us, whether we view it in a natural, a political or a moral point of light.

The Citizens of America placed in the most enviable condition as the sole Lords and proprietors of a vast tract of Continent comprehending all the various soils and climates of the World; and abounding with all the necessaries and conveniences of life, are now by the late satisfactory pacification acknowledged to be possessed of absolute freedom and independency. They are from this period to be considered as the Actors on a most conspicuous Theatre, which seems to be peculiarly designated by Providence for the display of human greatness and felicity; here they are not only surrounded by everything which can contribute to the completion of private and domestic enjoyment but Heaven has crowned all its other blessings by giving a fairer opportunity for political happiness than any other nation has ever been favored with. Nothing can illustrate these observations more forcibly than a recollection of the happy conjuncture of times and circumstances under which our republic assumed its rank among the nations. The foundation of our Empire was not laid in the gloomy age of ignorance and superstition, but at an Epoch when the rights of mankind were better understood and more clearly designed, than at any former period. The researches of the human mind after social happiness, have been carried to a great extent, the treasures of knowledge acquired by labour of Philosophers, Sages and legislators, thro' a long succession of years, are laid open for our use, and their collected Wisdom may be happily applied in the establishment of our forms of Government, the free cultivation of letters, the unbounded extension of Commerce, the progressive refinement of manners, the growing liberality of sentiment, and above all the pure and benign light of revelation have had ameliorating influence on mankind and increased the blessings of society. At this auspicious period the United States came into existence as a nation, and if their Citizens should not be completely free and happy, the fault will be entirely their own. Such is our situation and such are our prospects; but notwithstanding the cup of blessing is thus reached out to us, notwithstanding that happiness is ours if we have a disposition to seize the occasion and make it our own, yet it appears to me there is an option still left the United States of America that it rests in their choice and depends upon their conduct whether they will be respectable and prosperous, or contemptible and miserable as a Nation. This is the time of their political probation, this is the moment when the eyes of the whole world are turned upon them, this is the moment to establish or ruin their national character forever, this is the favorable moment to give such a tone to our Federal Government as will enable it to answer the ends of its institution, or this may be the ill fated moment for relaxing the powers of the Union, annihilating the cement of the Confederation and exposing us to become the sport of European politics which may play one State against another, to prevent their growing importance, and to serve their own interested purposes; for according to the system of policy the States shall adopt at this moment they will stand or fall; and by their confirmation or lapse it is yet to be decided whether the resolution is ultimately to be considered as a blessing or a curse—a blessing or a curse not to the present age alone, for with our fate will the destiny of unborn millions be involved. With this conviction of the importance of the present crisis, silence in me would be a crime. I will therefore speak to your Excellency the language of freedom and sincerity without disguise. I am aware, however, that those who differ from me in political sentiment may perhaps remark that I am stepping out of the proper line of my duty, and they may possibly ascribe to arrogance or ostentation what I know is alone the result of the purest intentions, but the rectitude of my own heart which disdains such unworthy motives, the part I have hitherto acted in life, the determination I have formed of not taking any share in public business hereafter, the ardent desire I feel, and shall continue to manifest by quietly in private life, after all the toils of War, the benefits of a wise and liberal Government will I flatter myself sooner or later convince my countrymen that I could have no sinister views in delivering with so little reserve, the opinions contained in this address. There are four things which I humbly conceive are essential to the well-being, I may even venture to say to the very existence of the United States as an independent power.

1. An indissoluble Union of the States under a Federal Head.
2. A Policy Sacred to public Justice.
3. The adoption of a proper peace establishment, &c.
4. The prevalence of that pacific and friendly disposition among the people of the United States which will induce them to forget their local prejudices and policies, to make those general concessions which are requisite to the general prosperity and in some instances to sacrifice their individual advantages to the interest of the Community.

These are the pillars on which the glorious fabrick of our Independency and National Character must be supported. Liberty is the basis and whoever would dare to sap the foundation, or overturn the structure under whatever specious pretence he may attempt it, will merit the bitterest execrations and the severest punishment which can be inflicted by his injured Country.

On the three first Articles I will make a few observations, leaving the last to the good sense and serious consideration of those immediately concerned. Under the first head, although it may not be necessary or proper for me in this place to enter into the particular disquisition of the principles of the Union, and to take up the great question which has been frequently agitated, whether it be expedient and requisite for the States to delegate a larger proportion of power to Congress or not, yet it will be a part of my duty, and that of every true patriot, to assert without reserve and to insist upon the following positions: That unless the States will suffer Congress to exercise those prerogatives they are undoubtedly vested with by the Constitution, everything must very rapidly tend to anarchy and Confusion, that it is indispensable to the happiness of the individual States that there should be some where lodged a supreme power to regulate and govern the General concerns of Confederated republic: without which the Union cannot be of long duration that there must be a faithful and pointed compliance on the part of every State, with the late proposals and demands of Congress, or the most fatal consequences will ensue, that whatever measures have tendency to dissolve the Union or violate or lessen the Sovereign Authority, ought to be considered as hostile to the Liberty and independence of America and the authors of them treated accordingly; and lastly, that unless we can be enabled by the concurrence of the States to participate in the fruits of resolution, and enjoy the essential benefits of Civil Society, under a form of Government so free and uncorrupted, so happily guarded against the danger of oppression as has been devised and adopted by the articles of Confederation, it will be a subject of regret that so much blood and treasure have been lavished to no purpose, that so many sufferings have been encountered without a compensation, and that so many sacrifices have been made in vain.

Many other considerations might be here adduced to prove that without an entire conformity to the Spirit of the Union we cannot exist as an independent power. It will be sufficient for my purpose to mention but one or two which seem to me of the greatest importance. It is only in our United Character as an Empire that our Independence is acknowledged, that our power can be regarded or our credit supported among foreign nations. The treaties of the European Powers with the United States of America will have no validity on a dissolution of the Union; we shall be left nearly in a State of nature, or we may find by our own unhappy experience that there is a natural and necessary progression from extreme anarchy to extreme tyranny, and that Arbitrary power is most easily established on the ruins of liberty abused to licentiousness. As to the second Article which respects the performance of public Justice, Congress have in their late address to the United States almost exhausted the subject. They have explained their Ideas so fully and have enforced the Obligation of the States to render compleat Justice to the Public Creditors with so much dignity and energy, that in my opinion no real friend to honor and Independency of America can hesitate a single moment respecting the propriety of complying with the Just and honorable measures proposed if their arguments do not produce conviction. I know of nothing that will have greater influence, especially when we recollect that the system referred to being the result of the collected wisdom of the Continent must be esteemed, if not perfect, certainly the least objectionable of any that could be devised, and that if it shall not be carried into immediate execution bankruptcy with all its deplorable consequences will take place before any different plan can be proposed and adopted, so pressing are the present circumstances and such is the alternative now offered to the States.

The ability of the Country to discharge the debts which have been incurred in the defense is not to be doubted. An inclination I flatter myself will not be wanting. The part of our duty is plain before us. Honesty will be found on every experiment to be the best and only true policy, let us then as a Nation be just, let us then fulfil our public Contracts which Congress had undoubtedly a right to make for the purpose of carrying on the War, with the same good faith we suppose ourselves bound to perform our private engagements. In the meantime, let our attention to the cheerful performance of their proper business as individuals and as members of Society be earnestly inculcated in the Citizens of America. Then will they strengthen the hands of Government, and be happy under its protection; every one will reap the fruit of his labours; every one will enjoy his own acquisitions without molestation and without danger.

In this State of absolute freedom and perfect security, who will grudge to yield a very little of his property to support the common Interests of Society and insure the protection of Government? Who does not remember the frequent declarations at the commencement of the War, that we should be completely satisfied if at the expence of one-half we could defend the remainder of our possessions? Where is the man who wishes to remain indebted for the defense of his own person and bravery to the exertions, the bravery and blood of others without making one generous effort to repay the debt of honor and of gratitude? In what part of the Continent shall we find any man or body of men, who would not blush to stand up and propose measures calculated to rob the Soldier of his Stipend, and the public Creditor of his due? And were it possible that such a flagrant instance of Injustice could ever happen, would it not excite the general indignation and tend to bring down upon the authors of such measures the aggravated Vengeance of Heaven?

If after all, a spirit of disunion of a temper of obstinacy and perverseness should manifest itself in any of the States, if such an ungracious disposition should attempt to frustrate all the happy effects that might be expected to flow from the Union if there should be a refusal to comply with the requisitions of Congress for funds to discharge the annual interest of the public Debts, and if that refusal should revive again all those jealousies and produce all those evils which are now happily removed, Congress, who have in all their Transactions shown a great degree of Magnanimity, will stand Justified in the sight of God and Man and the State alone which puts itself in opposition to the aggregate wisdom of the Continent, and follows such pernicious and mistaken Councils, will be responsible for all the Consequences.

For my own part, conscious of having acted while a servant of the public in the manner I conceived best suited to promote the real Interests of my country, having in consequence of my fixed belief, in some measure pledged myself to the Army, that their country would do them complete and ample Justice, and not wishing to conceal any instance of my Official conduct from the eyes of the world, relative to the half pay and commutation granted by Congress to the Officers of the Army.

From these communications my decided sentiments will be clearly comprehended, together with the conclusive reasons which induced me at an early period to recommend the adoption of this measure in the most earnest and serious manner. As the proceedings of Congress, the Army and myself are open to all, and contain in my opinion sufficient information to remove the prejudices and errors which may have been entertained by any; I think it unnecessary to say anything more than just to observe, that the Resolutions of Congress now alluded to are undoubtedly as absolutely binding upon the United States as the most solemn Acts of Confederation or Legislation. As to the idea which I am informed has in some instances prevailed, that the half pay and commutation are to be regarded merely in the odious light of pension, it ought to be exploded forever, that provision should be viewed as it really was, a reasonable compensation offered by Congress when they had nothing else to give, to Officers of the Army for services then to be performed. It was the only means to prevent a total dereliction of service, it was a part of their hire; I may be allowed to say it was the price of their blood, and of our Independency, it is therefore more than a common debt, it is a debt of honor; it can never be considered a pension of gratuity, nor be cancelled until it is fairly discharged. With regard to the distinction between Officers and Soldiers, it is sufficient that the Uniform experience of every nation of the World combined without one, proves the utility and propriety of the discrimination, rewards in proportion to the aids the public derives from them are unquestionably due to all its servants. In some lines the Soldiers have perhaps generally had as ample a compensation for their services by the large Bounties which have been paid them as their Officers will receive in the proposed commutation in others. If besides the donation of Lands the payment of arrearages of Clothing and Wages, in which all the component parts of the Army must be on the same footing, we take into the Estimate the Bounties many of the Soldiers have received and the gratuity of one year's full pay, which is promised to all, possibly their situation (every circumstance being duly considered), will not be deemed less eligible than that of the Officers. Should a further reward, however, be judged equitable, I will venture to assert no one will enjoy greater satisfaction than myself on seeing an exemption from taxes for a limited time, or any other adequate immunity or compensation granted the brave defenders of their Country's Cause, but neither the adoption nor rejection of this proposition will in any manner affect, much less militate against the Act of Congress by which they have been offered five years full pay in lieu of the half pay for life, which had been before promised to the Officers of the Army.

Before I conclude the subject of public Justice, I cannot omit to mention the obligations this Country is under to that meritorious class of veteran non-commissioned Officers and privates, who have been discharged in consequence of the Resolution of Congress of the 23rd of April, 1782, on an annual pension for life, their particular sufferings, their singular merits and claims to that provision, need only to be known to interest all the feelings of humanity in their behalf, nothing but a punctual payment of their annual allowances can requite them for most complicated misery; and nothing can be a more melancholy and distressing sight, than to behold those who had shed their blood or lost their limbs in the service of their Country, without a shelter, without a friend and without the means of obtaining any of the necessaries of life, compelled to beg their daily bread from door to door. Suffer me to recommend those of this description belonging to your State to the warmest patronage of your Excellency and your Legislature.

It is necessary to say but a few words on the third topic, which was proposed, and which regards particularly the defence of the republic as there is no doubt but Congress will recommend a proper peace Establishment for the United States in which a due attention will be paid to the importance of placing the Militia of the Union upon a regular and respectable footing. If this should be the case, I would beg to urge the great advantages of it in the strongest terms. The Militia of this Country must be considered as the palladium of its security, and the first effectual resort in the case of hostility. It is essential therefore that the same system should pervade the whole that in the formation and discipline of the Militia the Continent should be absolutely uniform, and that the same species of Arms, accoutrements & Military apparatus should be introduced in every part of the United States. No one who has not learned it from experience can conceive the difficulty, expence and confusion which result from a contrary system, or the vague arrangements which have hitherto prevailed. In treating of political points a greater latitude than usual has been taken in the course of this address, the importance of the crisis, and the magnitude of the objects in discussion must be my apology. It is however, neither my wish or expectation that the preceding observations should claim any regard, except so far as they shall appear to be dictated by a good intention consonant to the immutable rules of Justice, calculated to produce a liberal system of Policy and founded on whatever experience may have been acquired by a long and close attention to public business. Here I might speak with the more confidence from my actual observations and if it would not swell this (already too prolix) beyond the bounds I had prescribed myself, I could demonstrate to every mind open to conviction, that in less time and with much less expence than has been incurred, the war might have been brought to the same happy conclusion, if the resources of the Continent could have been properly drawn forth, that the distress and disappointments which have very often occurred have in too many instances resulted more from a want of energy in the Continental Government than a deficiency in means in the particular States; that the inefficacy of measures arising from the want of an adequate authority in the Supreme power from a partial compliance with the requisitions of Congress in some of the States and from the failure of punctuality on others, while it tended to dampen the Zeal of those who were willing to exert themselves, served also to accumulate the expences of the War, and to frustrate the best concerted plans, and that the discouragements occasioned by the complicated difficulties and embarrassments in which our affairs were by this means involved, would have long ago produced the dissolution of any army less patient, less virtuous, and less persevering than that which I have had the honor to command.

But while I mention these things which are notorious facts as the defects of our Federal Constitution, particularly in the prosecution of a War, I beg it may be understood that as I have ever taken a pleasure in gratefully acknowledging the assistance and support I have ever desired from every class of citizens, so shall I always be happy to do justice to the unparalleled exertions of the individual States on many interesting Occasions.

I have thus freely disclosed what I wished to make known before I surrender up my public trust to those who committed it to me. The task is now accomplished. I now bid adieu to your Excellency as the Chief Magistrate of your State, at the same time I bid a last farewell to the cares of office and all the employments of public life.

It remains then to be my final and only request, that your Excellency will communicate these sentiments to your Legislature at their next meeting, and that they may be considered as the legacy of one who has evidently wished on all occasions to be useful to his Country, and who even in the shades of retirement will not fail to implore the divine benediction upon it.

I now make it my earnest prayer that God would have you and all the State over which you preside in His holy protection; that He would incline the hearts of the Citizens to cultivate a Spirit of Subordination and Obedience to Government, to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another, and for their fellow Citizens of the United States at large and particularly for their brethren who have served in the field; and finally that He would be most graciously pleased to dispose us all to do Justice, to love Mercy and to demean ourselves with that charity, humanity and pacific temper of mind which were the characteristics of the divine Author of our blessed religion and without an humble imitation of whose example in these things we can never hope to be a happy Nation.

With great esteem and regard,

I have the honor to be, Sir, Your Excellency's

Most Obedient and Most humble Servant,

G. WASHINGTON.

His Excellency the Governor of North Carolina.

QUERIES AND ANSWERS.

“My great grand-father George and his father Alexander Breckenridge both fought as Volunteers among the American forces at the Battle of “King’s Mountain,” Oct. 7, 1780; they were at that time resident in Washington Co., Va., at Wolf Hill, now near the town of Abington. The Elder (Alexander) was a planter and surveyor and it is the real tradition that he and his young son were on a Surveying expedition when the battle was pending and they hastily joined the Patriot forces. They however never received any pay and we have no record of their service except the oral statement as above of my great grand-father to my father. It is my belief that this Alexander Breckenridge took part in the Cherokee Expedition under Col. Wm. Christian in the same year. I have seen it stated in family letters that he served with his brother in Genl. Greene’s Army when Lord Cornwallis’ forces lay in Virginia. I desire to confirm the above by documentary proof to perfect the Revolutionary record of my Ancestors. Any one knowing of the existence of the requisite evidence will kindly advise

James M. Breckenridge,

The Indian legend of Virginia Dare, has been beautifully and elegantly immortalized in verse by Mrs. Sallie Southall Cotten, of Bruce, Pitt Co., N. C. In "The White Doe" a copy of which is on our table, the talented Authoress has won for herself a literary reputation that will live as long as the memory of man recalls the birth of the first white child in America. The book can be obtained of Mrs. Cotten, by mail. As a sufficient recommendation of the work we append in full the "Prologue."

"In the tomb of vanished ages sleep th' ungarnered truths of Time,
Where the pall of silence covers deeds of honor and of crime;
Deeds of sacrifice and danger, which the careless earth forgets,
There in ever-deep'ning Shadows, lie embalmed in mute regrets.
Would-be-gleaners of the Present vainly grope amid this gloom;
Flowers of Truth to be immortal must be gathered while they bloom,
Else they pass into the Silence, Man's neglect their only blight,
And the Gleaner of the Ages stores them far from human sight.
Yet a perfume, sweet and subtle, lingers where each flower grew,
Rising from the shattered petals, bathed and freshened by the dew:
And this perfume, in the twilight, forms a mist beneath the skies,
Out of which, like airy phantoms, legends and traditions rise
For the Seeds of Truth are buried in a legend's inmost heart,
To transplant them in the sunlight justifies the poet's art."
